FOREWORD

THE class of 1938 is happy to present this, the first issue of Greene Light. To Mr. Peck, we wish to extend our thanks for originating this book, and making its publication possible. Here, too, may we say "thank you" to Miss Rich, our faculty advisor, for the advice and guidance she has given us in this undertaking.

IN MEMORIAM

No tribute could be paid to Gerald P. Jones which would speak more clearly to our hearts than the memory of the life he lived. That life, beautiful in itself, held even more power in the way in which it reflected upon all who contacted it. His spirit has been, and is, a beacon to those who knew him, guiding toward a better life.

P. G.'s.

BACK ROW—Bernice Finch, Mineva Dunham, Shirley Edgerton, Carolyn Hart.

CENTER ROW—Florence Cook, Betty Jones, Henry Bottle, Newton Boyce, Norman Torrey, Marjorie Forrest, Leslie Clinton.

FRONT ROW—Jack Doolittle, Margaret Thomas, Clifford Lockerby, Miss Manning, faculty advisor; Helen Parker, Virginia Cobb, Gordon Brown.

The P. G.'s (post-graduates, of course) number 17 this year, 18 counting Miss Manning, the "P. G. mother." The officers elected for the year are as follows:

| | | | | |
|-----------------------|---|---|---|-------------------|
| President | - | - | - | Clifford Lockerby |
| Social Vice President | - | - | - | Virginia Cobb |
| Secretary-Treasurer | - | - | - | Helen Parker |

Among the P. G.'s are many of the school's most important student leaders, such as Shirley Edgerton, president of Student Council, and Marjorie Forrest, editor of the news staff. Here, too, are leaders in sports such as Betty Jones and Virginia Cobb. The P. G. "tyranny" has long been a bone of contention among lower grades, but let's forgive them, shan't we?

JUNIOR CLASS ROLL

Not in picture—Leon Bixby, Mildred Harrington, Edwin Hogg.

JUNIOR CLASS

Under the leadership of President Stanley Fairchild, the parties, dances, class meetings and other social activities have proceeded in a manner that has not been surpassed by former classes. Due to the secretarial work of Helen Schat, secretary and treasurer of the class for the past two years, the books of the Student Council show that the class has a balance on hand of $22.58. Other officers of the class are:

| | | | | |
|--------------------------|---|---|---|----------------|
| Financial Vice President | - | - | - | George Raymond |
| Social Vice President | - | - | - | Ruth Bryant |

The Juniors have contributed much to the success of the school in dramatics, sports, music, and other school activities. A few of the more outstanding students in dramatics are: Marion Eastwood, George Raymond, Edward Seibold; In sports: Wilma Beilke, Ruth Bryant, Grace Drachler, Keith Davis, Stanley Fairchild, Franklyn Kenyon, George Raymond, Joseph Villante, Harold Wheeler; In prize speaking: Edward Seibold; In Art Club: Ethel Leach, Helen Schat; In Shop Club: Robert Clinton; In Agriculture Club: Keith Clark.

One of the chief factors that has aided us in our work has been the excellent advice and council given us by our faculty advisor, Charles Antony, Jr. He, of all teachers, has been the most helpful to us in solving those problems which generally help to ruin the career of many high school students because they go unanswered.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Freshman Class of 1936-1937 presented "Treasure Island", at commencement exercises, directed by Miss Eleanor Roth.

Gerald Wheeler and Johanna Broekema were given citizenship awards.

Mr. Chamberlain, who started supervising Greene High when we started school, gave us our diplomas.

On September 8, the 1937-1938 Sophomore Class began their Senior High Course under the guidance of Mrs. McCormack and Miss Henninge, who was succeeded by Miss Knuppel. With us were four new members, Catherine Madden, Lucille Foster, Katherine Robinson, and Gordon Morrow.

The officers elected to lead the class were:

| | | | | | |
|----------------|---|---|---|---|----------------|
| President | - | - | - | - | Gerald Wheeler |
| Vice President | - | - | - | - | Donald Kilgus |
| Secretary | - | - | - | - | Eloise Adams |
| Treasurer | - | - | - | - | Malcolm Smith |

Our first party was held on December 3, and on January 29 we had a sleigh ride followed by a farewell party in honor of Miss Henninge; also on February 15, we held a Valentine party in honor of Miss Knuppel.

The people voted into the Dramatic Club by recommendation were: Myra Fairchild, Johanna Broekema, Barbara DeLamarter, Frank McLean and Paul Robinson.

Participating in the Public Speaking Activity were: Leora Biggs, Katherine Robinson, Myra Fairchild, Johanna Broekema, and Mary Ann Griffin. The first three were chosen as representatives in the final contest.

JUNIOR HIGH ACTIVITIES

A total of 159 students are enrolled in Junior High. This includes three years: seventh, eighth, and ninth.

The officers elected in each grade to carry on the new business are:

Seventh:

| | | |
|----------------|-------|----------------|
| President | - - - | Erwin Weymouth |
| Vice President | - - - | Irene Comfort |
| Secretary | - - - | Janice Bowman |
| Treasurer | - - - | Joan Gray |

Eighth:

| | | |
|----------------|-------|--------------------|
| President | - - - | Jane Gray |
| Vice President | - - - | Glenn Pollard |
| Secretary | - - - | Katherine Drachler |
| Treasurer | - - - | Gerald Young |

Ninth:

| | | |
|----------------|-------|-------------------|
| President | - - - | Helen Corbin |
| Vice President | - - - | Frank Gates |
| Secretary | - - - | Donald Harrington |
| Treasurer | - - - | Charles Utter |

The boys' and girls' junior choruses have 50 members altogether. In the school orchestra, 11 junior high students participate. These include: Eleanor Boeltz, Jane Gray, Gerald Flanagan, Alice Phelps, Florence Bottle, Katherine Drachler, Gerald Young, Rena Barnes, Jean Page, William Page, and Charles Mosher. The students in the orchestra took part in the Music Festival at Sidney, April 29.

Patrol boys are chosen each year to enforce safety laws in the school. William Page was elected captain this year with Charles Utter, Charles Mosher, Donald Harrington, Carl Webb, Roderick Kimball, Fred Ford, Burr Phelps, and John Burkle working with him. It is the boys' duty to report anyone they see disobeying the safety rules. If a student is reported he has to serve a time after school as punishment.

The junior high news staff is under the supervision of Miss Roth with Helen Corbin as editor; Marjory Kruger as assistant editor; and Eleanor Boeltz, Carol Carter, Ellen Whitmarsh, Katherine Owens, Rosie Adams, Louis Friedman, Janice Bowman, and Barbara Antony as the reporters.

A group of ninth grade students presented the play, "A Matter of Choice", at the one-act play contest. The cast, including Nancy Rhodes, Carol Carter, Lucille Parker, Helen Corbin, Lillian Ryan, Frank Gates, and Fred Ford, was directed by Miss Roth.

Red and white have been chosen by the freshmen class for their colors and the rose for their flower. These colors will be carried out in the commencement program.

Ninth grade and seventh grade girls have organized 4-H Clubs. The ninth year girls are combined with the senior club under the leadership of Miss Wood. The seventh grade girls are led by Leslie Clinton.

Junior high has had three play days with neighboring schools, two days with Bainbridge and one with Oxford. The ninth grade boys have formed an Athletic Club with Roger Gardner as their president.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the most important school organization in our school. It has 22 members that are either officers in the council, or president or representative of a club. The officers of this organization have a great deal of responsibility in the fact that they are responsible for nearly all school activities. These officers are:

| | | | |
|--------------------------------|---|---|------------------|
| President | - | - | Shirley Edgerton |
| Social Vice President | - | - | Leslie Clinton |
| Assembly Vice President | - | - | Clyde Edgerton |
| Activity Vice President | - | - | Harry Pollard |
| Financial Vice President | - | - | Inez Hill |
| Points and Insignia | - | - | Jack Doolittle |
| Advertising and Transportation | - | - | Maurice Smith |
| Secretary | - | - | Betty Jones |

The council provides for interscholastic sports with surrounding schools and purchases the equipment and pays the expenses that go with every sport.

They have sponsored monthly dances to obtain funds with which to pay for the new radio-victrola that they recently purchased.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra is an organization for the purpose of advancing the student musician as well as furnish music for assemblies. The officers and first and second players are as follows:

| | | | | | |
|---------------------------------|---|---|---|---|--------------------|
| Librarian | - | - | - | - | Virginia Cobb |
| Concert Master and First Violin | - | - | - | - | Grace Drachler |
| Second Violin | - | - | - | - | Jane Jackson |

| Elizabeth Drachler | - | - | - | Pianists |
| Ruth Harrington | - | - | - | |
| Jane Jackson | - | - | - | |
| Marion Eastwood | - | - | - | Manager |

There are 55 members in the Glee Club. The club participates in all musical concerts and festivals. This year the Glee Club went to Sidney to take part in a musical festival.

The songs sung by the entire Glee Club were: "The Viking", Coleridge Taylor; "By the Bend of the River", Edwards; "The Plowman", Clarke.

The songs sung by the girls' chorus were: "Were You There?" Negro spiritual; "Roses of Picardy", Wood; "Turn Ye", Scottish—Pitcher.

The songs sung by the boys' chorus were: "Eight Bells", Bartholomew; "Serenade", Haydn; "Drink to Me Only", Olde English.

FOOTLIGHTS SOCIETY

The Footlights Society is the name applied to the organization formerly known as the Dramatic Club. The officers are:

| | | | | | |
|--------------------------|---|---|---|---|---------------------|
| President | - | - | - | - | Dominick DeGregorio |
| Vice President | - | - | - | - | Betty Jones |
| Financial Vice President | - | - | - | - | George Raymond |
| Property Manager | - | - | - | - | Edward Seibold |
| Secretary and Treasurer | - | - | - | - | Minnie Brachin |
| Reporter | - | - | - | - | Florence Cook |
| Publicity Manager | - | - | - | - | Maxine Filer |

They presented the hit of the season, "Huckleberry Finn", a three-act play, on November 22, 1937, with the following cast of characters:

| | | | | | |
|-----------------|---|---|---|---|--------------------|
| Huck Finn | - | - | - | - | Paul Robinson |
| Tom Sawyer | - | - | - | - | William Forrest |
| Aunt Polly | - | - | - | - | Florence Cook |
| Mr. Finn | - | - | - | - | George Raymond |
| Mary Jane | - | - | - | - | Minnie Brachin |
| Clara Woppinger | - | - | - | - | Marjorie Forrest |
| Amy Woppinger | - | - | - | - | Barbara DeLamarter |
| Melba | - | - | - | - | Louise Krivicich |

The society also sponsored two one-act plays, "Which Is the Way to Boston?", and "Storm Before Sunset". These plays were presented in the auditorium on the evening of March 3, to determine the play to be sent to the sectional contest. "Which Is the Way to Boston?" was selected with the following cast of characters:

| | | | | | |
|---------------|---|---|---|---|---------------------|
| John Harvey | - | - | - | - | Edward Seibold |
| Martha Harvey | - | - | - | - | Florence Cook |
| Mary Harvey | - | - | - | - | Minnie Brachin |
| Chris Harvey | - | - | - | - | Dominick DeGregorio |

This play won first place at the sectional contest held at Oxford, March 7, and also first place in the final contest held at South New Berlin on March 14.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Officers of the club are as follows:

| | | | |
|-------------------|---|---|----------------|
| Minnie Brachin | - | - | President |
| Evelyn Bilby | - | - | Vice President |
| Virginia Wightman | - | - | Secretary |
| Gerald Excell | - | - | Treasurer |

There are 22 enrolled in the club. The purpose of the club is to advance and benefit its members, to promote good will among them, and to teach its members to cooperate. It also sponsors all commercial contests. The Commercial Club renders secretarial service to the school and keeps the commercial rooms neat and well organized.

SENIOR NEWS STAFF

The officers of the news staff are:

| | | | | |
|------------------|---|---|---|------------------|
| Editor-in-Chief | - | - | - | Marjorie Forrest |
| Assistant Editor | - | - | - | Maxine Filer |
| Managing Editor | - | - | - | Florence Cook |
| Reporters | - | - | - | Maurice Smith |
| | | | | Louise Krivicich |
| | | | | Virginia Cobb |
| | | | | Dixon Wells |
| | | | | Edward Seibold |
| | | | | Berton Cook |
| | | | | Grace Drachler |
| | | | | Ruth Bryant |
| | | | | Cornelia Skinner |
| Typists | - | - | - | Margaret Thomas |
| | | | | Ruth Harrington |
| Faculty Advisor | - | - | - | Miss Ada Knuppel |

The news staff has two columns in the weekly town newspaper that they fill with articles on school activities and other outstanding incidents that are of interest to the public and students.

ART CLUB

The Art Club, with its 13 members, has been one of the most active clubs in the school this year.

Some of the work the members have done for the school is as follows:

They painted the windows in the front of the school house to represent Christmas legends.

They made posters to advertise some of the school activities, such as the play, "Huckleberry Finn."

More work of the Art Club may be seen in this year book. Some of the senior members made the block prints for the title pages.

The officers of the club are as follows:

| | | | |
|----------------|---|---|------------------|
| President | - | - | Wilma Ingram |
| Vice President | - | - | Maxine Filer |
| Treasurer | - | - | Phyllis Hutchins |
| Secretary | - | - | Louise Krivicich |

IM CANTOS

The "Im Cantos", a music club newly formed in 1937, is a club planned for students who are especially interested in music and wish to learn more about it. The charter members are Ruth Bryant, Virginia Cobb, Jack Doolittle, Elizabeth Drachler, Grace Drachler, Jane Jackson, Miss Murphy, Russell Rheubottom, and Cornelia Skinner.

The officers are:

| | | | |
|---------------------|---|---|--------------------|
| President | - | - | Jack Doolittle |
| Vice President | - | - | Elizabeth Drachler |
| Secretary-Treasurer | - | - | Virginia Cobb |
| News Reporter | - | - | Grace Drachler |

Honorary members are Miss Henninge, Miss Rich, Miss Hale, and Mr. Antony.

This club has carried on many activities in the past year. On November 18, we went to Syracuse to see Verdi's famous opera, "Aida". This opera was presented by the New York Opera Company.

The club also went to Christ Church in Binghamton to hear an all-boys' a cappella choir. The boys in this choir were 11 and 12 years old and had remarkable range of voice. They sang at the Coronation in England.

The "Im Cantos" had the opportunity to hear a concert by Jose Iturbi, piano virtuoso, at the Cortland Normal School, February 28.

The object of the club is to give an opportunity for more people, both in the club and in the school, to understand and appreciate good music.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

The Public Speaking Club has a membership of 11 students with Mrs. Grace McCormack as faculty advisor. The officers of the club are:

| | | | |
|-------------------------|---|---|---------------------|
| President | - | - | Dominick DeGregorio |
| Vice President | - | - | Minnie Brachin |
| Secretary and Treasurer | - | - | Dixon Wells |

In the local contest on January 21, everyone in the club participated. Two first prizes of $5.00 each were awarded to the best boy and best girl speaker and two seconds of $3.00 each for next best, and two thirds of $1.00 each for next best. The boy winners were: Dominick DeGregorio, first; Edward Seibold, second; Harry Pollard, third.

The girl winners: Minnie Brachin, first; Louise Krivicich, second; Shirley Edgerton, third.

Minnie Brachin and Edward Seibold went to the sectional contest at Sherburne on February 7, and Minnie returned with first place, but, unfortunately, she was unable to participate in the finals because of illness.

AG. CLUB

The Ag. Club, comprised of 10 members, is doing very well this year under the leadership of the following:

| | | |
|-------------------------|-------|------------------|
| President | - - - | Robert Malochleb |
| Vice President | - - - | Donald Gates |
| Secretary and Treasurer | - - - | Kenneth Wells |

A judging team, composed of Robert Malochleb and Kenneth Wells, placed second in the cow judging contest held at Morrisville. The entire club went to Ithaca for one day during Farm and Home Week.

The club's basketball team was especially successful this year, winning six out of seven games, as well as the championship of Chenango County.

SHOP CLUB

The Shop Club is one of the minor clubs of the school.

It is composed of 32 boys most of whom take the shop course or shop.

The club holds its meetings on the first Tuesday in each month.

The officers are as follows:

| | | |
|----------------|-------|-------------------|
| President | - - - | Leo Bates |
| Vice President | - - - | Stanley Fairchild |
| Secretary | - - - | Henry Dutcher |
| Treasurer | - - - | Henry Bottle |

HOMEMAKING CLUB

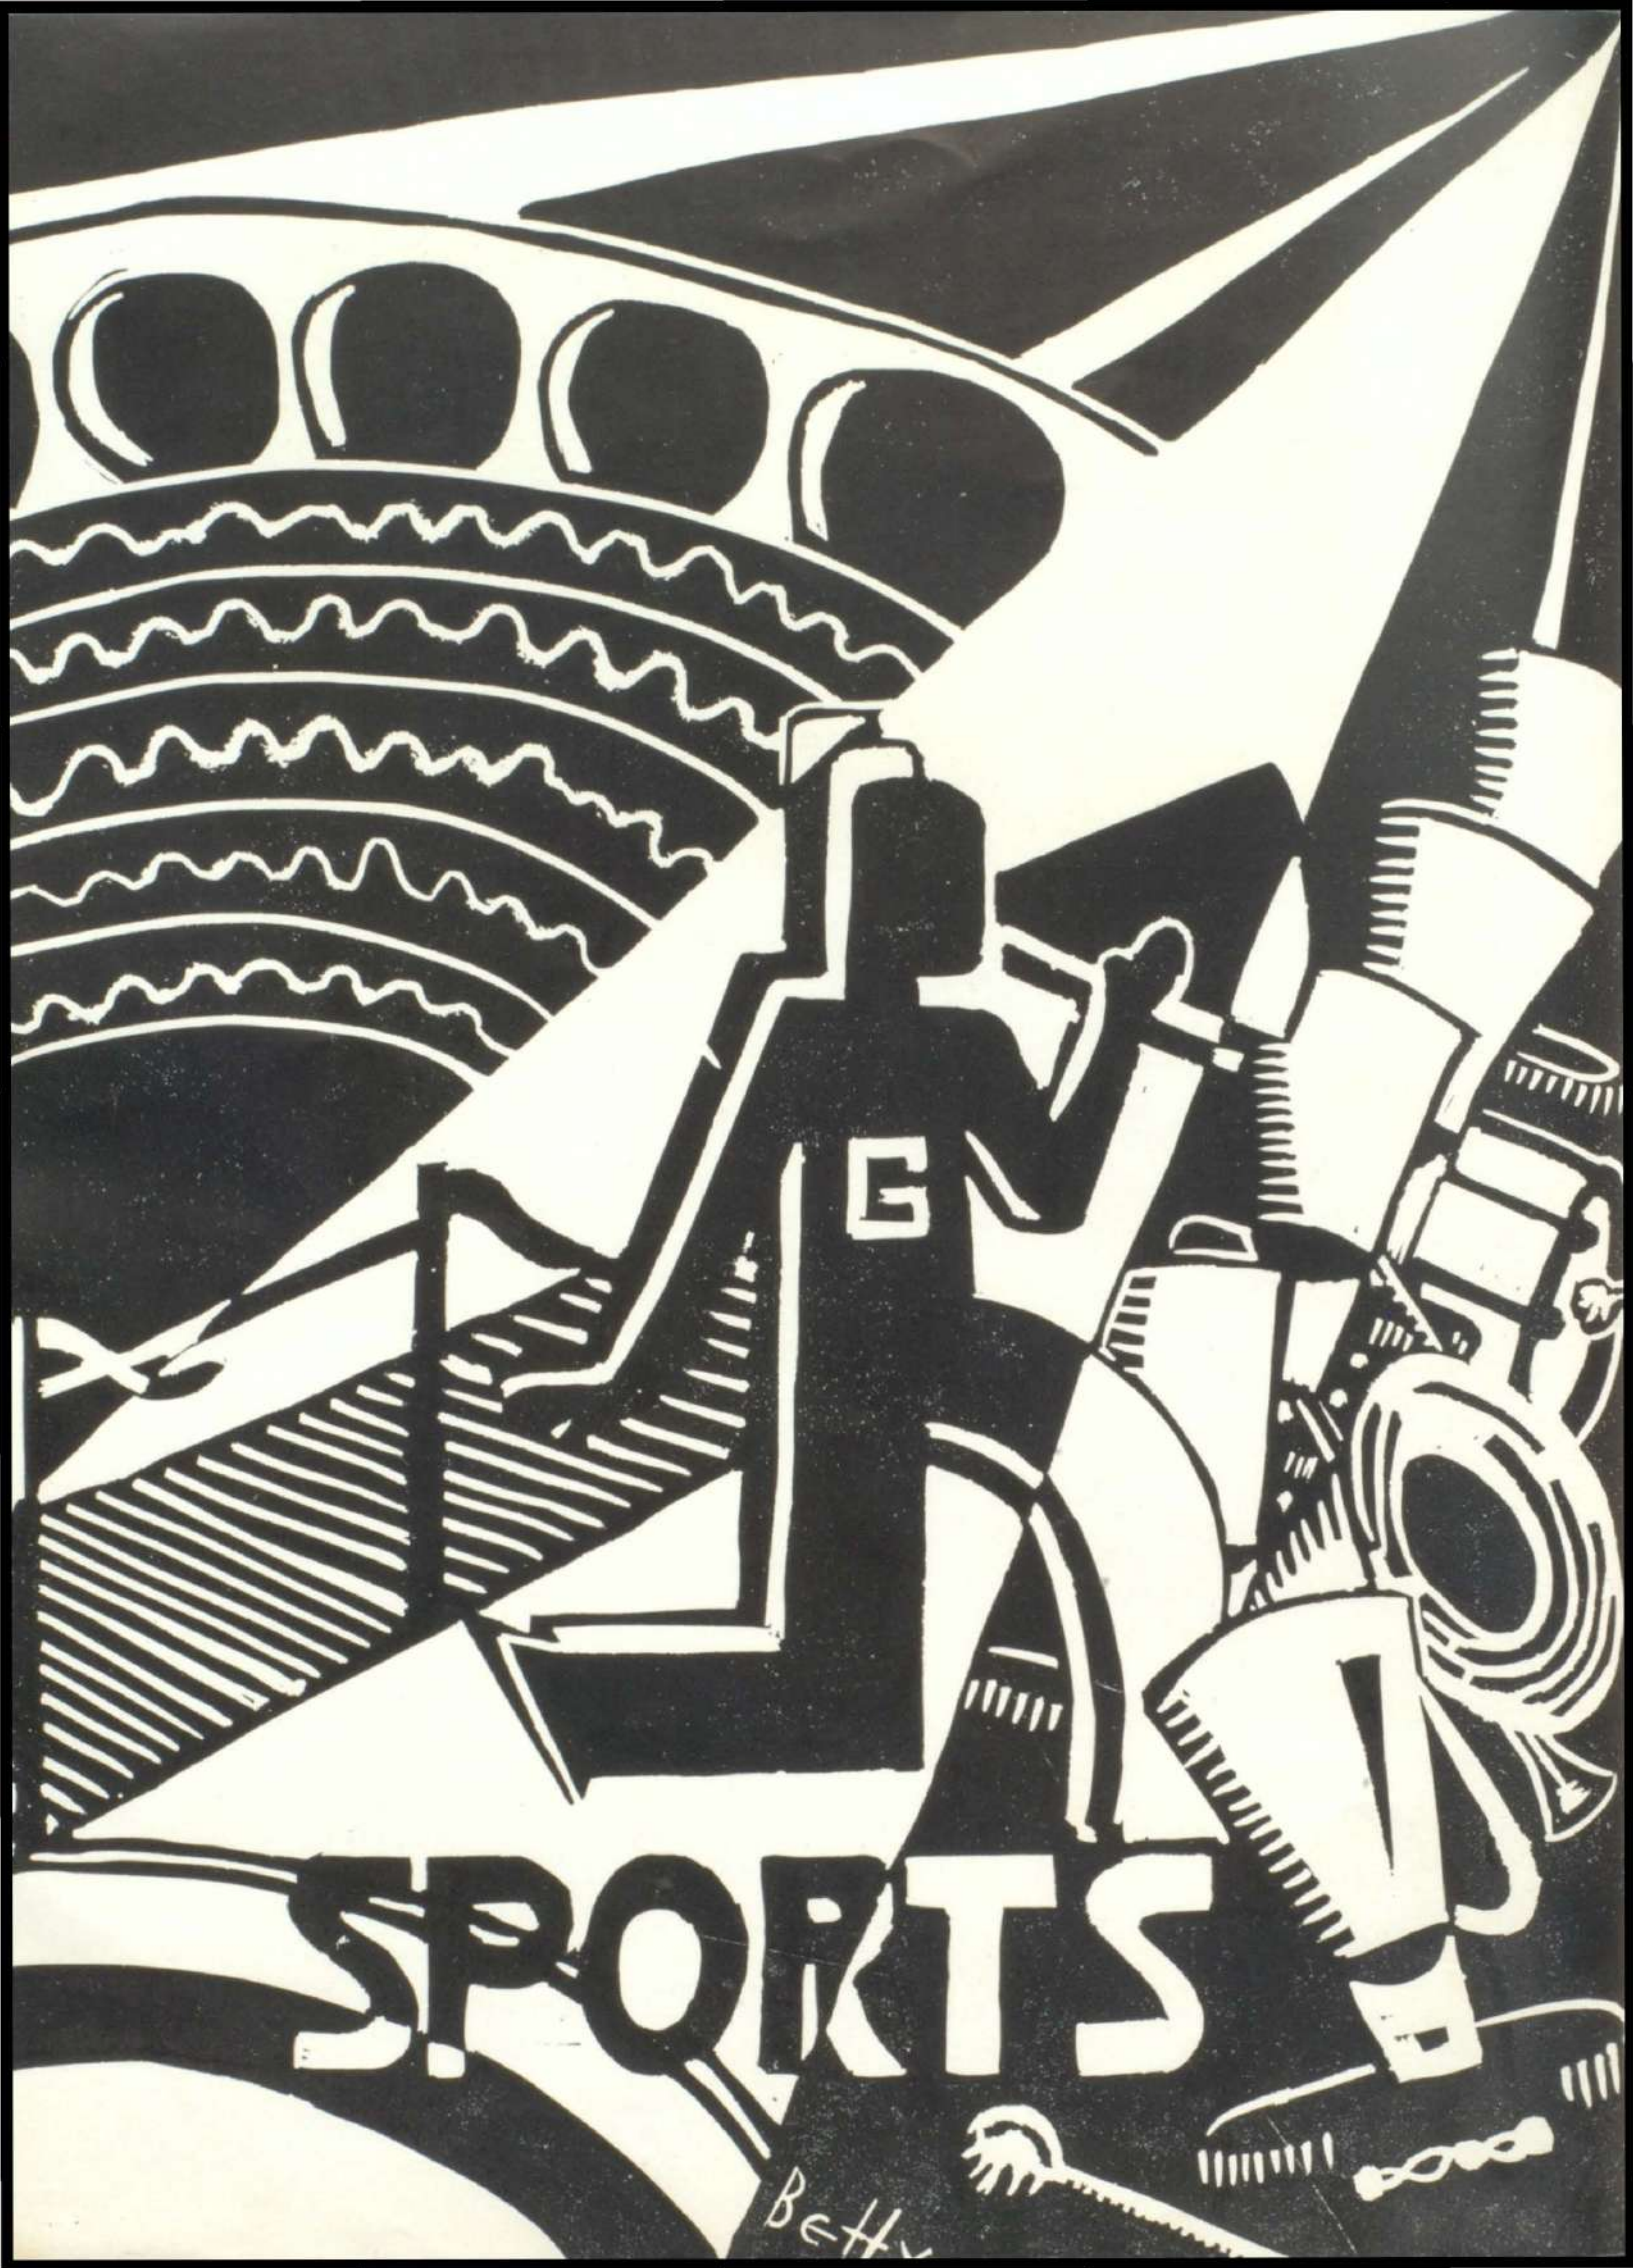

| | | |
|----------------|-------|---------------|
| President | - - - | Elsie Klein |
| Vice President | - - - | Edna Barstow |
| Secretary | - - - | Imogene Evans |
| Treasurer | - - - | Nora Hart |

(a) The girls provide the club with information on current Home Economics news.

(b) Give training on planning parties.

(c) Improve sociability at parties.

(d) Made trip to Ithaca to see Farm and Home Week exhibits. Interested in foreign costumes.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball squad for the year was an exceptionally good one. The girls are undefeated. These girls squarely met the basketeers of the other schools and in every case proved superior.

The other teams were not such easy marks as one might think. In fact, many of them were excellent, and it took courage, determination, and plenty of the good old fight to bring G. H. S. out on top. Throughout, these girls never lost the golden thread of sportsmanship that really makes the game worthwhile. There were games when the other teams seemed sure to win. The girls never gave up, but played with added spirit and fight; consequently placing the Greene girls' basketball team first in the league.

The highest scorer for the year was Wilma Beilke. She scored a total of 68 points. Second and third scorers were Eloise Adams and Elizabeth Jones. Spectators at the games will long remember the way these girls played. It is not all in making the basket; someone must send the ball to them, so every forward on the team deserves credit. Most of them followed closely the number of points made by these three girls.

When the ball was on the opponent's side of the court, the Greene guards sprang into action. Helen Parker, Ruth Bryant and Virginia Cobb were the star guards of the season. However, other guards on the team were near rivals in speed and ability.

The girls that played in the All-Star were Helen Parker, Wilma Beilke, Ruth Bryant, and Virginia Cobb.

The honorary captains are Ruth Bryant and Wilma Beilke.

The following received major letters in basketball for the season:

Forwards: Wilma Beilke, Barbara DeLamarter, Wilma Ingram, Eloise Adams, Grace Drachler, Evelyn Bilby, Elizabeth Drachler, Dorothy Jean Turner, and Elizabeth Jones.

Guards: Helen Parker, Ruth Bryant, Virginia Cobb, Marilyn Willey, Shirley Edger-ton, Inez Hill, and Irene Fanning.

The managers were Leora Biggs, Marguerite Pollard, and Ruth Bush. Each of these girls received a minor letter.

BASKETBALL '37-'38

The league championship, the objective of every league team, went to Greene High this year, when the Sherburne quintet bowed to the green and white after a 35 to 14 defeat. Therefore, the rest of the season couldn't be called a failure even though Greene won only eight out of 15 games.

A brief summary of each game is as follows: Alumni—The varsity took over the stars of yesterday 41 to 30. Norwich—The visitors won in a fourth period rally. Afton—It was a very exciting game, ending with a one-point difference in the scores. Bainbridge — Our boys were badly beaten by a team which proved to be superior in shooting, passwork, and defense. The following week, we played them again and Bainbridge was completely outplayed by their opponents who showed a much improved team over that previously displayed. Afton—A three-point lead won the game this time for Afton, who was forced to play its first string all the last half. Homer—After following, during the first half, Greene speedily recovered enough in the second to gain the deciding score. Earlville—Our boys played a top-notch game and gave the Earlville five a thorough trouncing. Chenango Forks—Back in the winning again, Greene refused to accept defeat which faced them during the first half. St. Patricks—After trailing the entire distance, the Emeralds gained a last-minute goal which broke the 27-27 tie in their favor. Sherburne—By defeating the Sherburne quintet, G. H. S. gained top place in the league. This was one of the fastest, roughest games of the season. Chenango Forks—Greene High again romped home after the Forks threw a first-period scare. St. Patricks—The Greene players rectified their mistake of two weeks ago after a doubtful first quarter. Earlville—The Jayvees started and played one quarter but the pace set by the Earlville first-stringers was too much. Afterwards our varsity was unable to regain the lost ground. Norwich—We played a losing game from half-time on. Sherburne—A decisive game for both teams, our boys took the honors and likewise the league cup. All-Star—Our entries were Billy Friedman, Jerry Tice, and Bob Adams. Susquehanna won.

The scores of the 15 games were:

| Teams | Opponents | Greene | Teams | Opponents | Greene |
|----------------|-----------|--------|------------------------|---------------|--------|
| Alumni | 30 | 41 | St. Patricks | 29 | 27 |
| Norwich | 38 | 32 | Chenango Forks | 26 | 38 |
| Afton | 33 | 32 | Sherburne | 25 | 30 |
| Bainbridge | 40 | 27 | St. Patricks | 22 | 32 |
| Bainbridge | 16 | 28 | Earlville | 23 | 15 |
| Afton | 28 | 25 | Norwich | 44 | 36 |
| Homer | 22 | 26 | Sherburne | 14 | 35 |
| Earlville | 13 | 58 | All-Star (Susquehanna) | 55 (Chenango) | 32 |
| Chenango Forks | 18 | 26 | | | |

The lettermen are: Friedman, honorary captain; Tice, Lockerby, Doolittle, Hart, Hathaway, Pollard, Adams, Excell. Of the above list only Excell and Hathaway expect to be back. Other members of the team are: Davis, Edgerton, Fairchild, Raymond, Villante, Wheeler, Willey, Robinson (Paul), Wells, Robinson (Archie), Cornelius.

BASEBALL '38

The squad and substitutes for the '37 season were as follows:

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|---|---|-------------------|
| Pitcher | - | - | - | Paul Sherwood |
| Catcher | - | - | - | Stanley Fairchild |
| First Base | - | - | - | William Green |
| Second Base | - | - | - | William Friedman |
| Short Stop | - | - | - | Richard Palmiter |
| Third Base | - | - | - | Raymond Utter |
| Right Field | - | - | - | Gerald Excell |
| Center Field | - | - | - | Harry Pollard |
| Left Field | - | - | - | Clifford Lockerby |

Substitutes: Newton Boyce, Harold Wheeler, William Forrest, George Raymond, Alryn Willey, Keith Davis, Harry Hart, Robert Malochleb, Kenneth Wells, Gerald Tice, Robert Adams, Frank McLean, Glenn Cornelius, John Schmoll, and William Thorne, manager.

These men were the league champions in '37. The above men with a few "rookies" and with the exception of Green, Thorne, Palmiter, Utter, Sherwood, and Schmoll will comprise the squad of '38.

FOOTBALL 1937

Taking the season as a whole the 1937 football squad stood by its Alma Mater until the end, in fact, winning the last game (Franklin) 27 to 6.

A bird's-eye view of the season would see Francis Hathaway starting the season's scoring off with a touchdown, after a 35-yard run, to defeat Spencer.

The Bainbridge game was a fine game with G. H. S. doing most of the scoring. Raymond made a tackle in the last quarter which perhaps saved the day, when he downed a Bainbridge man headed for the goal line with no other obstruction.

The Sherburne game brought G. H. S. its first defeat. The tied score at half-time was broken when a Sherburne end scored on a long pass.

The Sidney game saw the green and white boys out-playing their opponents in the air, around the end, and through the line, giving Greene High its second league victory.

Afton was a let-down, with our boys being over-shadowed in virtually every department of the gridiron sport except perhaps gameness and pluck.

The Oxford contest was simply a good game, with every man doing his part. Did you ever see an Oxford game that wasn't good?

Coach Ockershausen changed his line-up slightly for the Deposit game and it remained that way for the rest of the year. Namely, Tice went to end, Raymond started calling signals, Pollard was in at tail, and Willey at quarter. However, the line played the best game of the season.

The Franklin team was subdued by Greene's boys regardless of the visitors monopolizing the ball during practically the entire first quarter.

In the All-Star game the Susquehanna League surrendered to Chenango after an afternoon of conflict, 13-0.

The scores of the eight games were:

| TEAM | OPPONENT | GREENE |
|------------|----------|--------|
| Spencer | 0 | 6 |
| Bainbridge | 0 | 26 |
| Sherburne | 13 | 7 |
| Sidney | 12 | 21 |
| Oxford | 7 | 0 |
| Deposit | 14 | 6 |
| Afton | 12 | 7 |
| Franklin | 6 | 27 |

The lettermen of the squad and their positions were: J. Doolittle, C., L. G., Honorary captain; C. Edgerton, R. E., R. T.; C. Lockerby, R. T.; N. Boyce, R. G.; K. Wells, L. G.; S. Fairchild, L. T.; H. Hart, L. E.; F. Hathaway, Q. B.; H. Pollard, R. H.; G. Tice, L. E., L. H.; A. Willey, Q. B.; G. Raymond, F. B., C.; R. Utter, R. E.; G. Excell, L. E.; R. Palmiter, R. G.; F. Kenyon, Manager.

Other members of the squad were: R. Leach, G. Cornelius, F. McLean, W. Forrest, A. Robinson.

The '38 season will find many missing. The lettermen who expect to be back are: F. Hathaway, A. Willey, S. Fairchild, G. Raymond, G. Excell.

SWIMMING

Greene took third place in the swimming meet, with Sherburne first, and Sidney second. The meet was held at West Junior High in Binghamton. There were no try-outs this year as the swimmers were too tender for the cold, cold, October water.

The following students represented the green and white in swimming: Newton Boyce, second in 50-yd. dash; Mildred Jones, third in 50-yd. dash; Jack Doolittle, Newton Boyce, third in two-man relay; Ruth Bryant, Mildred Jones, second in two-man relay; Roland Leach, Charles Hoyt, Clifford Lockerby, William Friedman, third in four-man relay; Elizabeth Jones, Betty Ingram, Cornelia Skinner, Eloise Adams, fourth in four-man relay; Gerald Tice, third in diving; Ruth Bryant, tied for first in diving; Elizabeth Jones, tied for second in plunge; Jack Doolittle, first in plunge.

TENNIS

Greene started out with an entirely new, inexperienced tennis team. The girls participating were Wilma Beilke and Ruth Bryant, in doubles, and Eloise Adams in singles.

They put up a game fight at the tournament, but they were outplayed by a much more proficient team.

The boys' team had slightly better luck. Jack Doolittle won his match of singles, while Harry Pollard lost. Clifford Lockerby and William Friedman also lost the double game.

ARCHERY

The Susquehanna League Archery meet was held at Unadilla, October 22. Greene won second place with a total score of 1543 points. The winning score of 1593 points was gained by Sherburne. Dorothy Turner won first place in the girls' contest with a score of 445, while Harry Hart gained second in the boys' contest with 395 points.

On October 9, Marion Eastwood, Grace Drachler, Cornelia Skinner, and Dorothy Turner represented Greene at the State High School Archery Tournament held at the Onondaga Lake Archery Range near Syracuse. Greene placed third with a score of 1489 points. There were 29 schools represented and 116 girls took part.

TRACK '37

On the G. H. S. final track team there were six girls and five boys, with Wilma Ingram, captain of the girls and Robert Maxon, captain of the boys. Members and their events are:

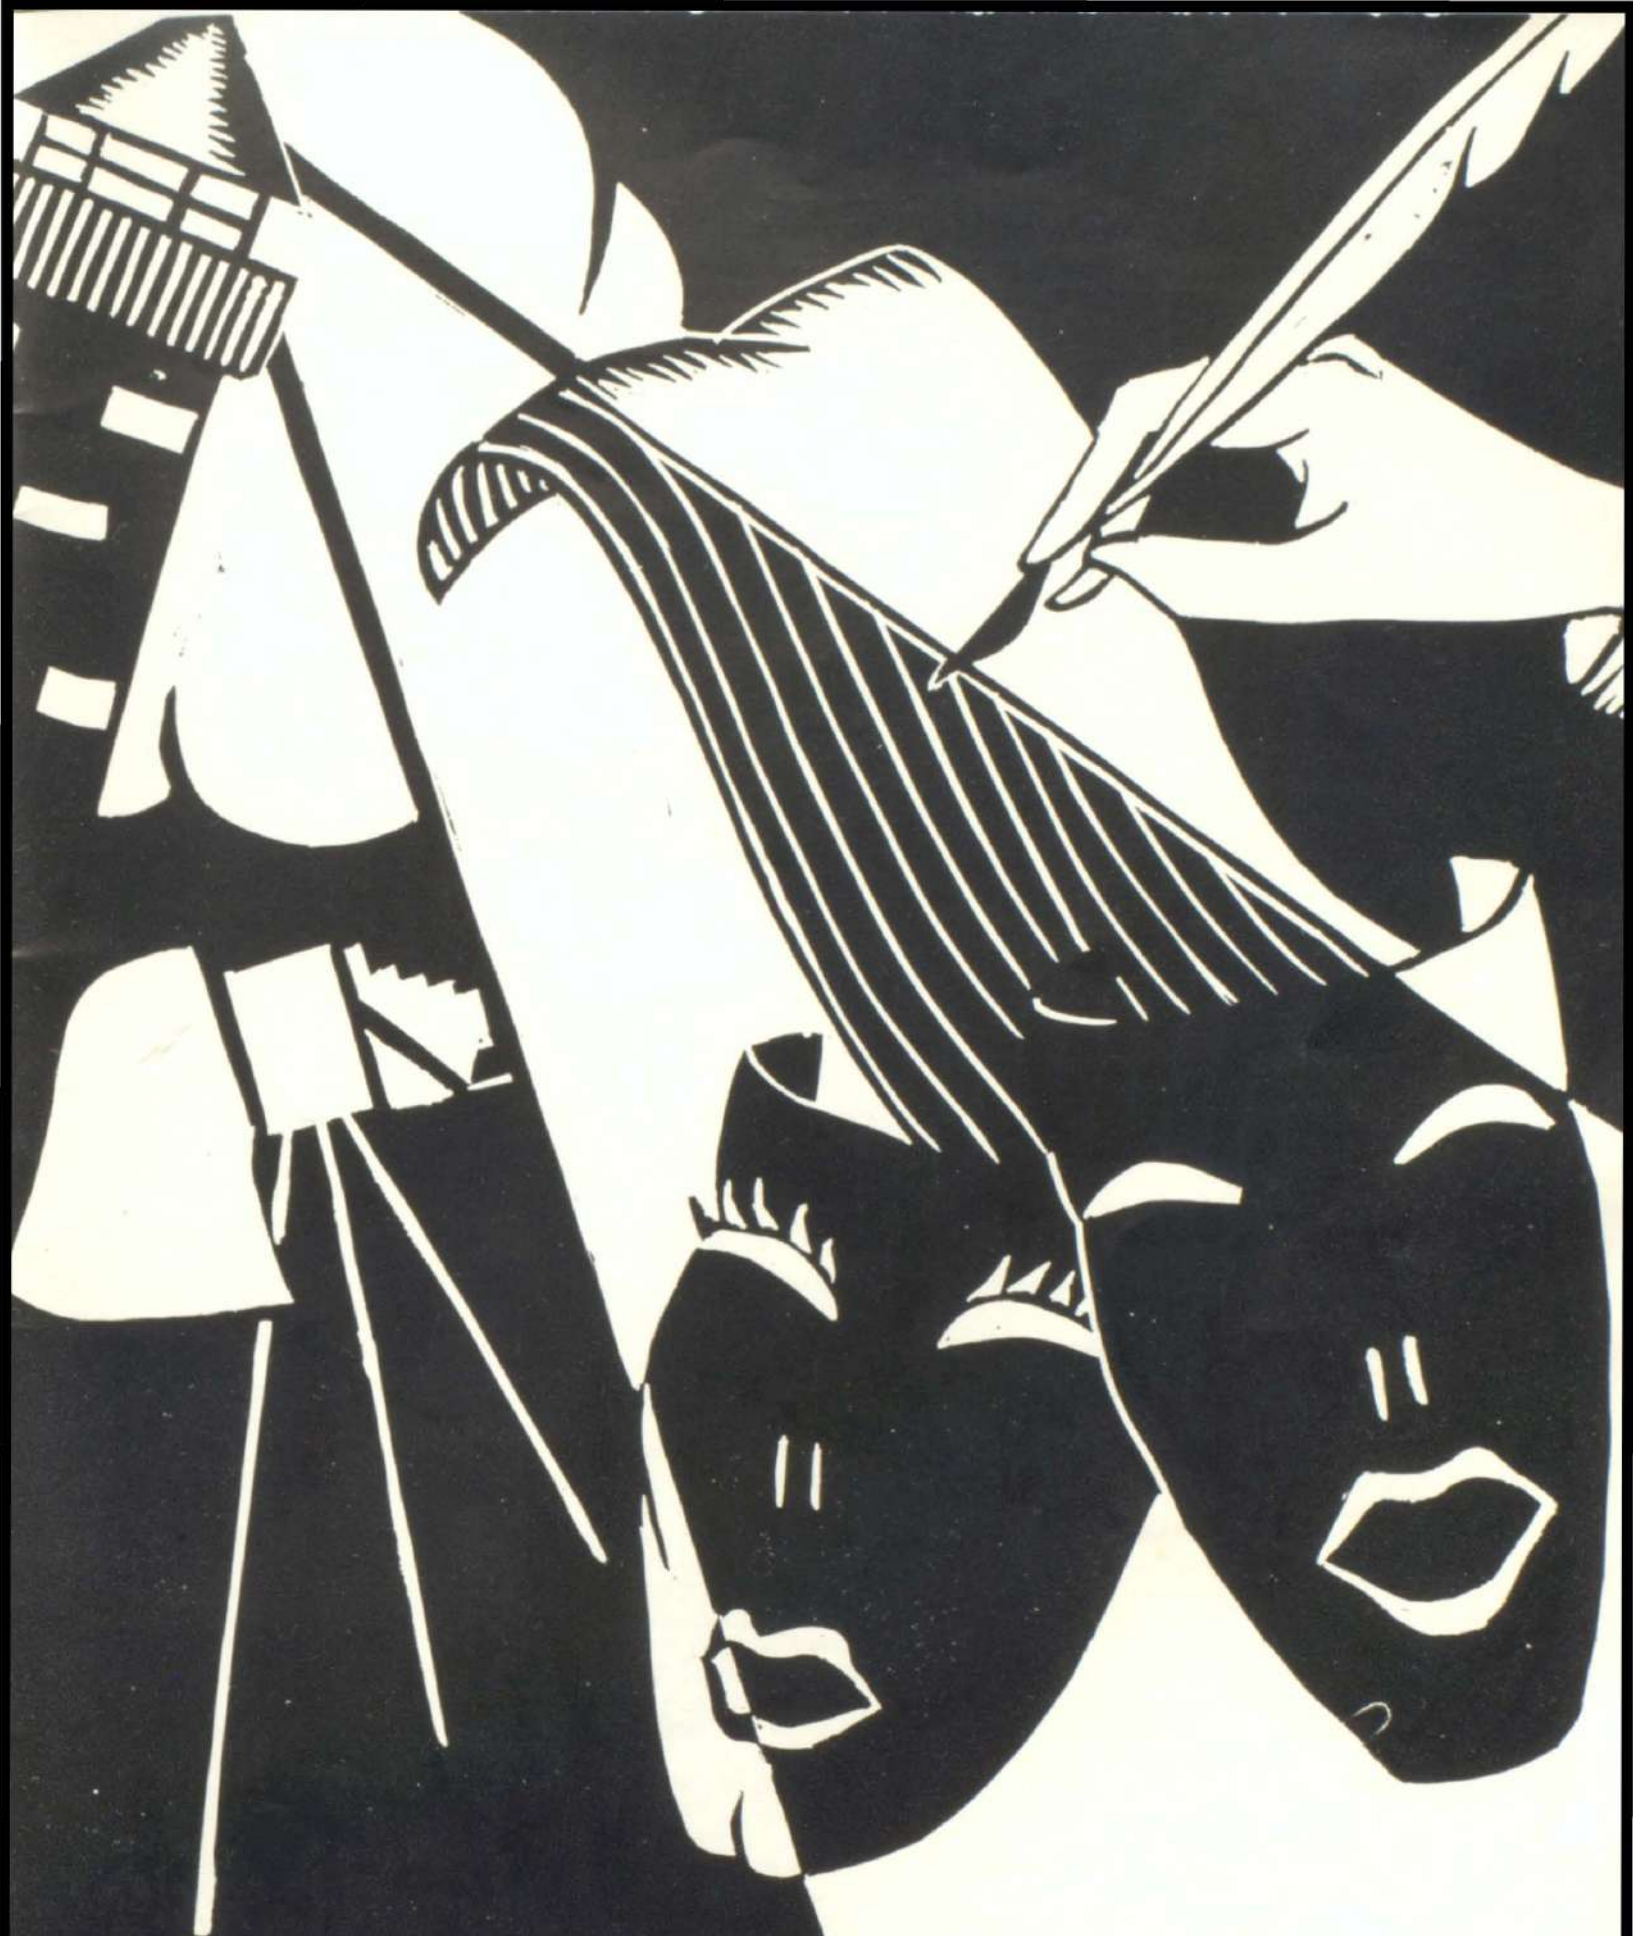

Girls:

| | | | |
|---------------------|---|-----------------|----------------|
| Wilma Ingram | - | - | 4-man relay |
| Grace Davis | - | - | 4-man relay |
| Louise Bottle | - | 2-man relay and | 4-man relay |
| Madeleine Bryant | - | - | 4-man relay |
| Mary Tarble | - | 2-man relay and | 4-man relay |
| Dorothy Jean Turner | - | - | baseball throw |

Boys:

| | | | |
|-----------------|---|------------------|-------------|
| Carl Meacham | - | 100-yd. dash and | 4-man relay |
| Gerald Tice | - | high jump and | 4-man relay |
| Robert Maxon | - | shot put and | 4-man relay |
| Richard Randall | - | 2-man relay and | 4-man relay |
| Harry Pollard | - | 2-man relay and | broad jump |

The above teams helped make possible the Chenango Valley League victory, Monday, May 24, 1937.

FEATUURES

WILL

We, the honorable students of the class of 1938, in the County of Chenango and State of New York, having few broken hearts and many broken bones and being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare, this our last will and testament, in manner following that is to say:

First: To the Junior class we leave our unexcelled ability to learn.

Bob Adams leaves his worn-out cast to anyone who wants it.

Minnie Brachin won't leave her one and only Jerry to anyone.

Maxine Filer leaves her refined culture to the first person who gets it.

To Miss Manning we bequeath a new crop of boys.

Marion Gates bequeaths her uncanny swing to Marion Eastwood.

Thomas Broekema leaves his well-trained brain to Russell Rheubottom.

To Mr. Peck we leave a toupee.

To Barbara DeLamarter we leave an "Arm-strong" heater.

Betty Drachler donates to her on-coming sister a seat on the old Ford.

Louise Krivicich leaves her ever-lasting phonograph to Marion Eastwood.

Bill Friedman bequeaths a G. H. S. basketball to Paul Robinson.

Henry Elliot bequeaths his admiration for Irene Clinton to Harold Wheeler.

To the new senior girls we leave a new book of jokes.

Richard Shipton issues his ability to be late for classes to John Palmiter.

Dixon Wells bequeaths his book-knowledge to Reginald Hanson.

To Vernon Eldred, Bill Friedman leaves a long, straight razor.

Franny Hathaway sends Barbara DeLamarter back to John Twohey.

To Bob Gray we leave a floating kidney.

To Miss Murphy we leave a silent admirer.

Wilma Ingram bequeaths the "Navy and Co." to Mildred Harrington.

Kenneth Wells bequeaths his mischievous ability to Raymond Decker.

The "G" Tice leaves his ability as a daring young man on the flying trapeze to Stanley Fairchild.

Dorothy Jean Turner bequeaths her "well" worn George Raymond to the Junior girls.

To the G. H. S. Physical Education department Leo Bates bequeaths his muscular tissue.

After much research in Miss Manning's chemistry class, Rowland Leach bequeaths his chemical formula for growth to mascot Wheeler.

To Mr. Peck the Senior class bequeaths a phonograph which keeps repeating "Where are you supposed to be this bell?"

To Miss Hale we bequeath an amplifying system to make up for the weakness of her voice.

To George Raymond, Dominick DeGregorio bequeaths his ability to imitate Romeo in the dark and McCarthy on the stage.

Alryn Willey leaves his childish pranks to sober, serious Cook.

Maurice J. Smith bequeaths his new-found executive ability and officious capacity to Joe Villante.

Harry Hart leaves his self-confidence and athletic judgment to Keith Davis.

Dominick DeGregorio leaves his curly hair to Gordon Morrow so that he won't have to wave his.

To Coach "Ockie" we leave a box of "Wheaties" to make a bigger and better football team.

To Miss Hale we leave a traveling salesman.

Clyde Edgerton leaves the well-worn Binghamton road to another "Romeo".

To Miss Knuppel we leave a handsome crop of boys with the privilege to close the windows.

To Mrs. Mac we bequeath a play cast that is always on time and never refuses to be at practice.

Irene Fanning leaves Coventryville to Mildred Harrington and Marian Hanna.

Betty Ingram leaves her old faithful Ford to her next competitor.

Bud Forrest leaves his hot air to Franklyn Kenyon to blow his bass horn.

Wilma Ingram bequeaths her Chicago rollers to Keith Davis.

Harry Pollard bequeaths his speed and athletic ability to Edwin Hogg.

Lastly we hereby appoint Fibber McGee executor of this, our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names the 15th day of March in the year Nineteen Hundred and 38.

In our presence and hearing, declared the same to be our last will and testament we, thoroughly competent (some doubt this) dispose of all our hard-earned belongings and accumulated possessions during our several feverish years at Greene High School.

Lacking both reason and strength we here end this tirade with the hope that our successors may (they'll need it) have the best of luck.

SIGNED: Charles McCarthy residing at Gabber's Avenue.

THE CLASS OF '38

I hate school. This probably sounds familiar to most of you as it has been said by nearly every student in high school. The Senior class of 1938 is certainly no exception. When we look back over our four years of high school, we recall that there were times when we thought that we had been mistreated and left out of everything. This old song did not bother the teachers, as they had heard it year after year. Let us take a few minutes to look back over these four historical years.

Our first year of high school was not so bad, but we oftentimes tried to make it bad. I will admit that our class was the first ninth grade class that was not taken to Binghamton by Miss Taft. However, if we had taken the time to check up on this, we would have found that the reason was that a bus was not at our disposal. At the time, we were broken hearted. Our broken hearts soon healed and we began to stumble about the halls as usual. Stumble is a good term for the way we went through the halls. It was this eventful year that the measles began circulating around the school. It was just before graduation that the students became acquainted with this plague. Maybe that is the reason why so many were absent during the graduation rehearsal. The fatal result was that half of us didn't know what to do during the exercises. We simply followed the leader, hoping that the leader knew what to do.

After successfully crawling out of the ninth grade, we crawled into the tenth with Clyde Edger-ton as president, Betty Harris as vice president, and Glennis Rouse as secretary and treasurer. Even though we did have our troubles, we considered it a quiet year. One of these troubles was making out our schedule at the beginning of the year. We poor sophomores wandered around looking at the schedules and wondering whether we were going to work cross word puzzles or make out a schedule. We lived through it, however, and received the usual compliment that we were the worst Sophomore class ever to be had in Greene High School. During our tenth year, many of our members distinguished themselves in dramatics, public speaking, and mechanical drawing. We were glad to welcome June, even though it did mean Regents, as we were tired of being Sophomores.

Now let us take a backward look at our Junior year. Gerald Tice was elected president of the class and Minnie Brachin, secretary-treasurer. When the year was half over, Minnie left for New York and Glennis Rouse took her place. This was a rather drab year. Outside the fact that we bought our rings, nothing much out of the ordinary happened. This was our year to give the Senior class a picnic. We furnished the buses all right and chose the park, but it makes us blush to think of the food. We did not have enough for our own class, notwithstanding the fact that we had to feed the Senior class as well. We slid through the picnic by pretending that the muttering and grumbling coming from the Senior class was only thunder. I forgot to mention an important event of our Junior year, so I will take the time now to describe it. It was the Junior Prom. This, in itself, was a disgrace to the class. We went in debt $14 for that great yearly event. We did not let this break our hearts as the preceding class had gone in debt more than that. Dominick De Gregorio acquitted himself admirably in public speaking, winning both the school contest and the sectional contest.

Now we will review the most important year of our high school life. In September, 1937, the Senior class, with Elizabeth Drachler as president and Virginia Wightman, secretary-treasurer, was in the school library making out schedules. For, alas, those poor muddled Sophomores, back in the September of 1935, had made a mess of things. The Juniors in the September of 1936 had not helped the situation any, so there was the Senior class with far too few credits. The teachers scraped and pulled with the students, and in the end, most of them had enough credits to graduate. In the first part of the year, every Senior had to bring 26 cents to pay for the Junior Prom debt. It broke our hearts to have to pay that small sum of 26 cents but Miss Race and the class officers were insistent. Finally after much coaxing, scolding, and threatening, everyone paid. We next ventured into a plot which had been organized, planned, and carried out by Mr. Peck. The incident to which I am referring was the picture undertaking. A photographer took pictures of everyone in school. The students were to pay a dollar and receive one large picture plus six small ones. All the Senior class had to do was to sort the pictures and collect the money. Our class did not grumble at this arrangement; it was the other classes. We received 10 per cent of what we sold. Our next great venture was the year book which no previous Senior class had attempted.

As we end our school life, we look back upon it as being one of the most enjoyable and important periods of our life. The impressions gathered there and the degree of character built there will remain with us always. We have gained socially as well as mentally. We have made friendships, many of which we will keep after our school life is over. So, as we leave the life which we have lived during the most important years of our life, we bid it farewell sadly, but we eagerly look forward to our future life.

10 YEARS FROM NOW

A Prophecy Letter

Model City of the Future
June 30, 1948

Dear Mr. Peck,

Inasmuch as 1938 was your first year at Greene, I thought you would be especially interested to hear about a trip I took recently. On this trip I had the unusual luck of seeing all the members of the class of 1938. I think that you will be very much pleased with my discoveries. I will relate the trip as it progressed.

My first stop was at the beautiful state forests where William Forrest, Robert Adams, and James Hutchins keep their vigil day and night. You will be pleased to know that there have been no serious fires here since they have been working.

From here I went to the Model City of the Future where I spent the remainder of my time. Of course I visited school first. At the high school I attended chapel at which Miss Elizabeth Drachler, the music director, conducted her orchestra in a very pleasing manner. At the grade school I visited three rooms which were supervised by Dorothy Robinson, Beatrice Madden, and Thomas Broekema. I am now also employed in this school and am trying to do as well as my former classmates. At one of the schools there was being held a conference of coaches of the schools in the state. Some of those present were Harry Pollard, Francis Hathaway, Alryn Willey, Harry Hart, and William Friedman. That group certainly should have made the meeting buzz.

The next day I visited the branch of the I. B. M. which is in the Model City. On the registration list I found the names of John Klein, Henry Elliot, and Charles Hoyt. They are all doing splendid work I was told. In the machine shop of the plant Kenneth Wells and Raymond Utter are making themselves important.

Through Irene Fanning, who is a private secretary, I learned that Gerald Excell, Loretta Kruger, Evelyn Bilby, Helen Loomis, Virginia Wightman, Cora Anderson, and Lottie Armentrout are working as secretaries in the city too. Irene also told me that Marion Gates and Mildred Hurlbut could do a very good job at making women beautiful. They each have a beauty salon of their own.

At the art studios in Model City, Betty Ingram, Maxine Filer, Phyllis Hutchins, Jeanne Rheubottom, Wilma Ingram and Louise Krivicich are doing different kinds of art work such as costume designing, interior decorating, and advertising designing. The prominent magazines often publish their work.

I spent one day visiting the wholesale market and milk plants. At the market, Merchant Leroy Warner told me that he regularly inspects the produce which comes from Dixon Wells' and Richard Shipton's prospering farms. He also said that Leo Bates flies over the market on his regular weekly flights to the west coast. He is the pilot of a transport plane. At the milk plant, I met Donald Gates and Robert Malochleb who get the milk ready for shipment to homes and stores.

At one of the modern hospitals of the city, I ran across another member of the class of 1938. In the modern operating room, Dr. D. J. Turner was busy performing a major operation. To my amazement her only change was that her auburn curls were hidden beneath a crisp, white cap. However, her interne assistant was waiting anxiously at her elbow.

For entertainment, I went to the theater where Minnie Brachin still thrills audiences with her stirring roles in outstanding plays. The musician at the piano was Jane Jackson. In spite of herself she still lets off a little steam now and then. Of course Dr. Gerald Tice, the successful dentist, was sitting in his box watching Miss Brachin with admiration. That same evening I went to see a program that was being broadcast at the local radio station. It featured Dominick DeGregorio as master of ceremonies and Maurice (Scoop) Smith with his latest front page thrillers for which he is becoming famous.

This evening of entertainment ended my visit. As I left the Model City of the Future, I crossed a beautiful four-span bridge. The engineer of this giant piece of architecture was Rowland Leach. Crossing the bridge were Walter Robbins, Henry Dutcher, and Clyde Edgerton. They were just entering this city of adventure, and I believe great success is in store for them.

I hope that you have gotten as much enjoyment out of this letter as I did in going on the trip. I think that if other classes succeed as we have they will be an honor to the school.

Sincerely yours,

Cornelia Skinner

SOMETHING DIFFERENT

As the crowd pressed closer toward the platform where the sideshow was being given, a solitary man leaned against a building at a distance from the crowd.

"Nick" Lawson grinned with satisfaction, for he saw the chance for a good haul. He sauntered toward the surging mob and managed to push his way to the middle of the crowd. He watched the show for a short time, then moved about and with surprising dexterity, Lawson removed billfolds, change purses and loose change from the mass of people. Slipping the booty into his pockets and dropping the purses here and there, "Nick" watched the rest of the sideshow with a feeling of success.

The sideshow ended with some discords from a cheap, amateur band and the crowd dispersed for other amusements of the fair. "Nick" wandered from the platform to a refreshment booth and, sitting down, casually ordered an entire meal. Not having had a square meal in a few weeks, he gulped down the first few mouthfuls and then ate slower and more lazily.

"That'll be thirty-seven cents," the dirty looking owner of the booth suddenly announced, and "Nick" woke from his daydreams. He laughed as he thought of all the good meals he would have in the future. Wiping his mouth on his sleeve, he reached a grimy hand in his pocket for change. With a gasp of surprise he looked in his other pockets. To the astonishment of the onlookers he turned an ashen gray and, swaying unsteadily on his feet, fainted.

His pockets had been picked.

WANTED . . .

597 Employees

During the past year, the Albany Business College Employment Department received better than two calls each business day for trained office employees . . . for full-time permanent positions.

. . . And many of these opportunities went unfilled for lack of trained ABC graduates. This testimonial from employers indicates the effectiveness of the Albany Business College plan of balanced education . . . a plan combining advanced training with extensive extra-curricular activities.

Graduation from an approved high school is one entrance requirement; the Admissions Committee gives preference to students with college-entrance credits. Record enrollment necessitates early application to assure a place in the new College Hall.
