The qualities which command respect and admiration for a teacher by his students are many and varied. They include the more obvious traits of a thorough knowledge of his subject and a keen ability to transmit this knowledge to his students, but they also include many less obvious traits as well . . . an interest in each of us as individuals, extending beyond the classroom, warmly and openly expressed; a friendly persuasion which shows us how to discipline ourselves not only in class but in our lives. This wonderously rare combination of talents evokes a response from us which lasts long after the last bell has rung, the last regents paper marked; it gives us a model after which we may all one day pattern our lives. We have found these qualities to one degree and another in many of the teachers and people we have met while at GSC, but in one person we found them most particularly. We take this chance to thank him for all he has shown us, for all those things which go beyond the sum of the squares on a hypotenuse. It is with great admiration and deep respect that the Class of 1973 dedicates this 1973 Greenelite to

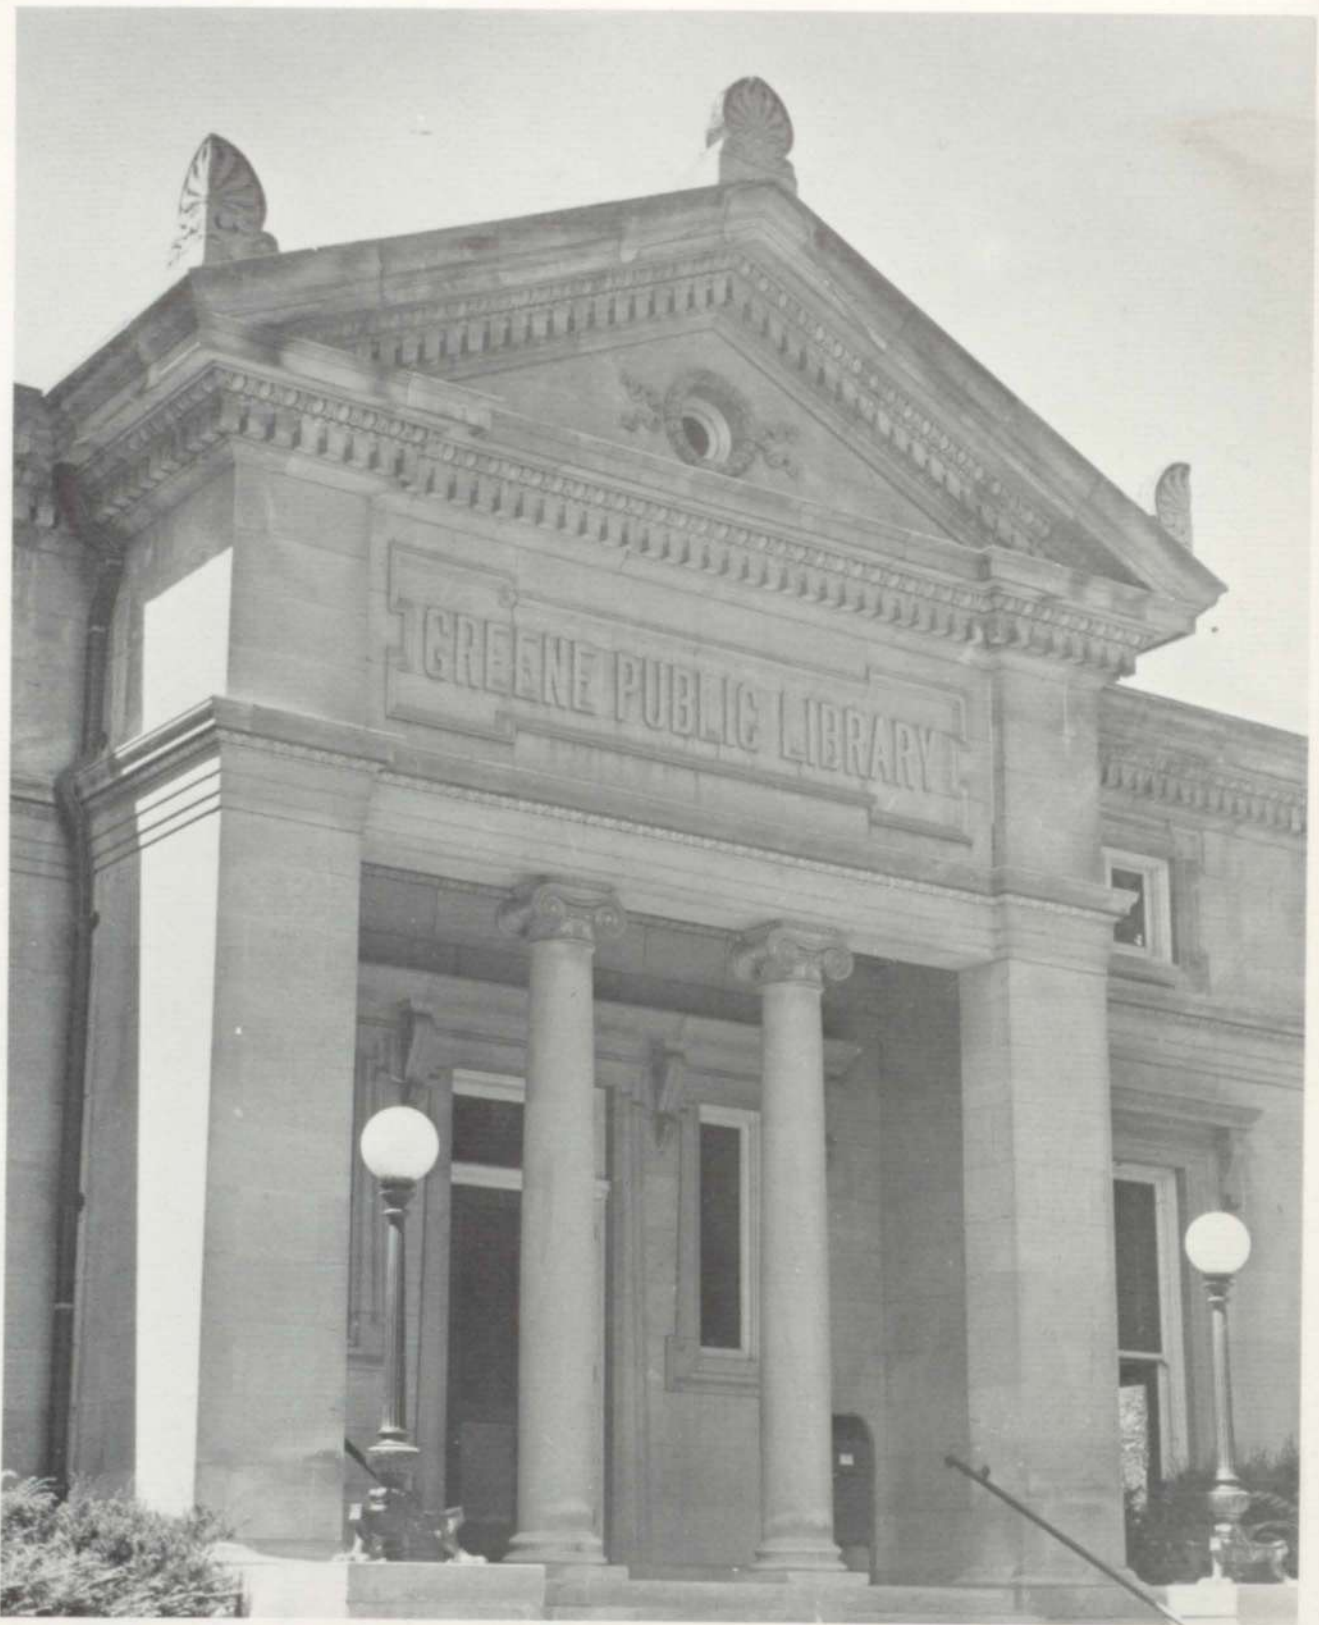

Mr. Charles Haughey

*To Behold a Whole New Day Aborning

MR. ROBERT N. BENNETT

District Principal

Mr. Bennett came to Greene Central School in 1955 when most of our Senior Class was just being born. His seventeen years of service here are the culmination of over twenty-five years of experience as a District Principal. He has guided our school district through periods of growth and expansion as we have added new buildings, new courses, new students and faculty. His ever present smile and friendly greeting to all, as well as his habit of bringing us to school through all the snow, will long be remembered fondly by each of us in the school and community. As he leaves this school with us in June for a change of pace and a well deserved rest, we wish him every best wish for his retirement, and say 'Thanks' for all the things he has done to make our school the place it is today.

MR. ROLAND F. WOLFORD

High School Principal

To the Class of 1973

I find it very difficult to address you as a class because I see you as individuals - over a hundred unique persons. More than any other class you have held on to your individual identities. At times your behavior has been outright selfish. Then again, you have exhibited social concern and the highest degree of cooperative effort. You have passed through high school at a time when perhaps "a person's doing his thing" has been overemphasized. True, conformity can stifle creativity and be a threat to individual existence, but aloof individualism is lonely and lacking in satisfaction. To live a full life, I believe, each of us must give up a little individuality and compromise with society. What are you willing to give?

Sincerely,

Roland F. Wolford

MRS. MARGARET ROSS

Class Advisor

For your countless efforts, the time, the worries, the traumas, . . . perhaps most of all for the patience and endurance with us . . . we are deeply grateful to you and we're glad you were with us this year.

In Memoriam

Carla Austin Jack Bates Gracia Niles

To accept our wide range of activities in this fast paced modern world means that we have also to accept the sorrows which seem to go with them. None of us can decide which of us shall live and which of us shall die. Carla, Jack, and Gracia have had life, and we will always have the memories of the good times we spent together. We will all go on from Greene Central School with these memories of their friendship, but each of us will go out with the feeling that our world is somehow diminished by their untimely loss.

The first cut goes in the left eye, I think.

What if he's ticklish?

The proper use of the fork is essential.

Gee, can't you do it any faster?

Why doesn't the book do it this way?

Don't spill a drop of it.

Did the Pilgrims ever eat Tempura for Thanksgiving?

But the cookbook means a big dash of salt.
