Epilogue	148

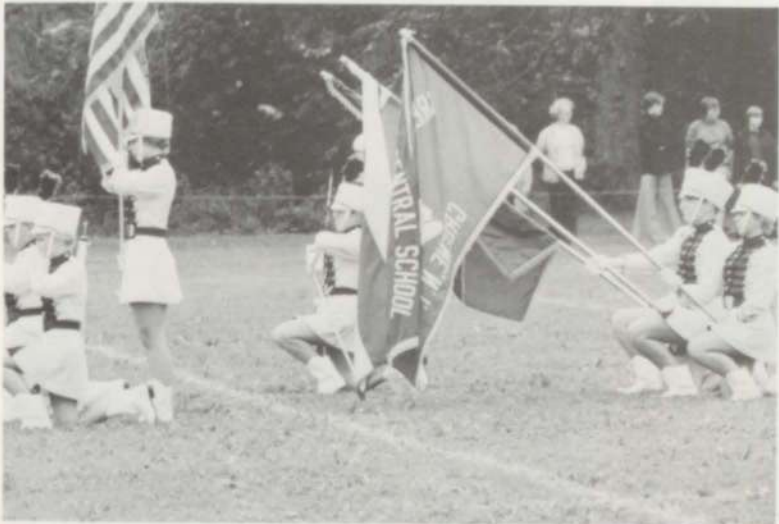

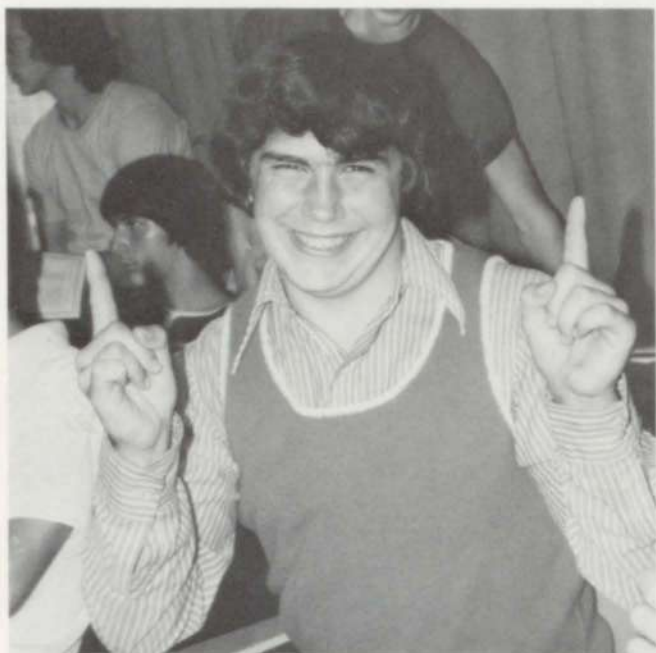

It takes a very special sort of person to be both a good friend and a good teacher. A good teacher is rare enough, although so many good teachers have affected each of us in some way or another in our years here; but it is even rarer to find a teacher who also cares for each of us as an individual, who sees us not only for what we are, but also for what we have been and what we are capable of being. It is a special sort of person who can spend hours talking to students, helping them with their problems, showing them another viewpoint or another side of life, sometimes simply entertaining them, yet still finding time for pursuing and sharing the many things which he enjoys - like cooking, or photography, or putting together a yearbook. We, the Class of 1974, are proud to dedicate our 1974 Greenelite to a man who has found the time to specially touch each of our lives at some time during our years here at GCS, a person who is both a teacher and a friend

You are no longer an obsession
of my mind,
Merely a memory
of something
unexplainable
and beautiful
To be remembered in moments of solitude and
daydreams,

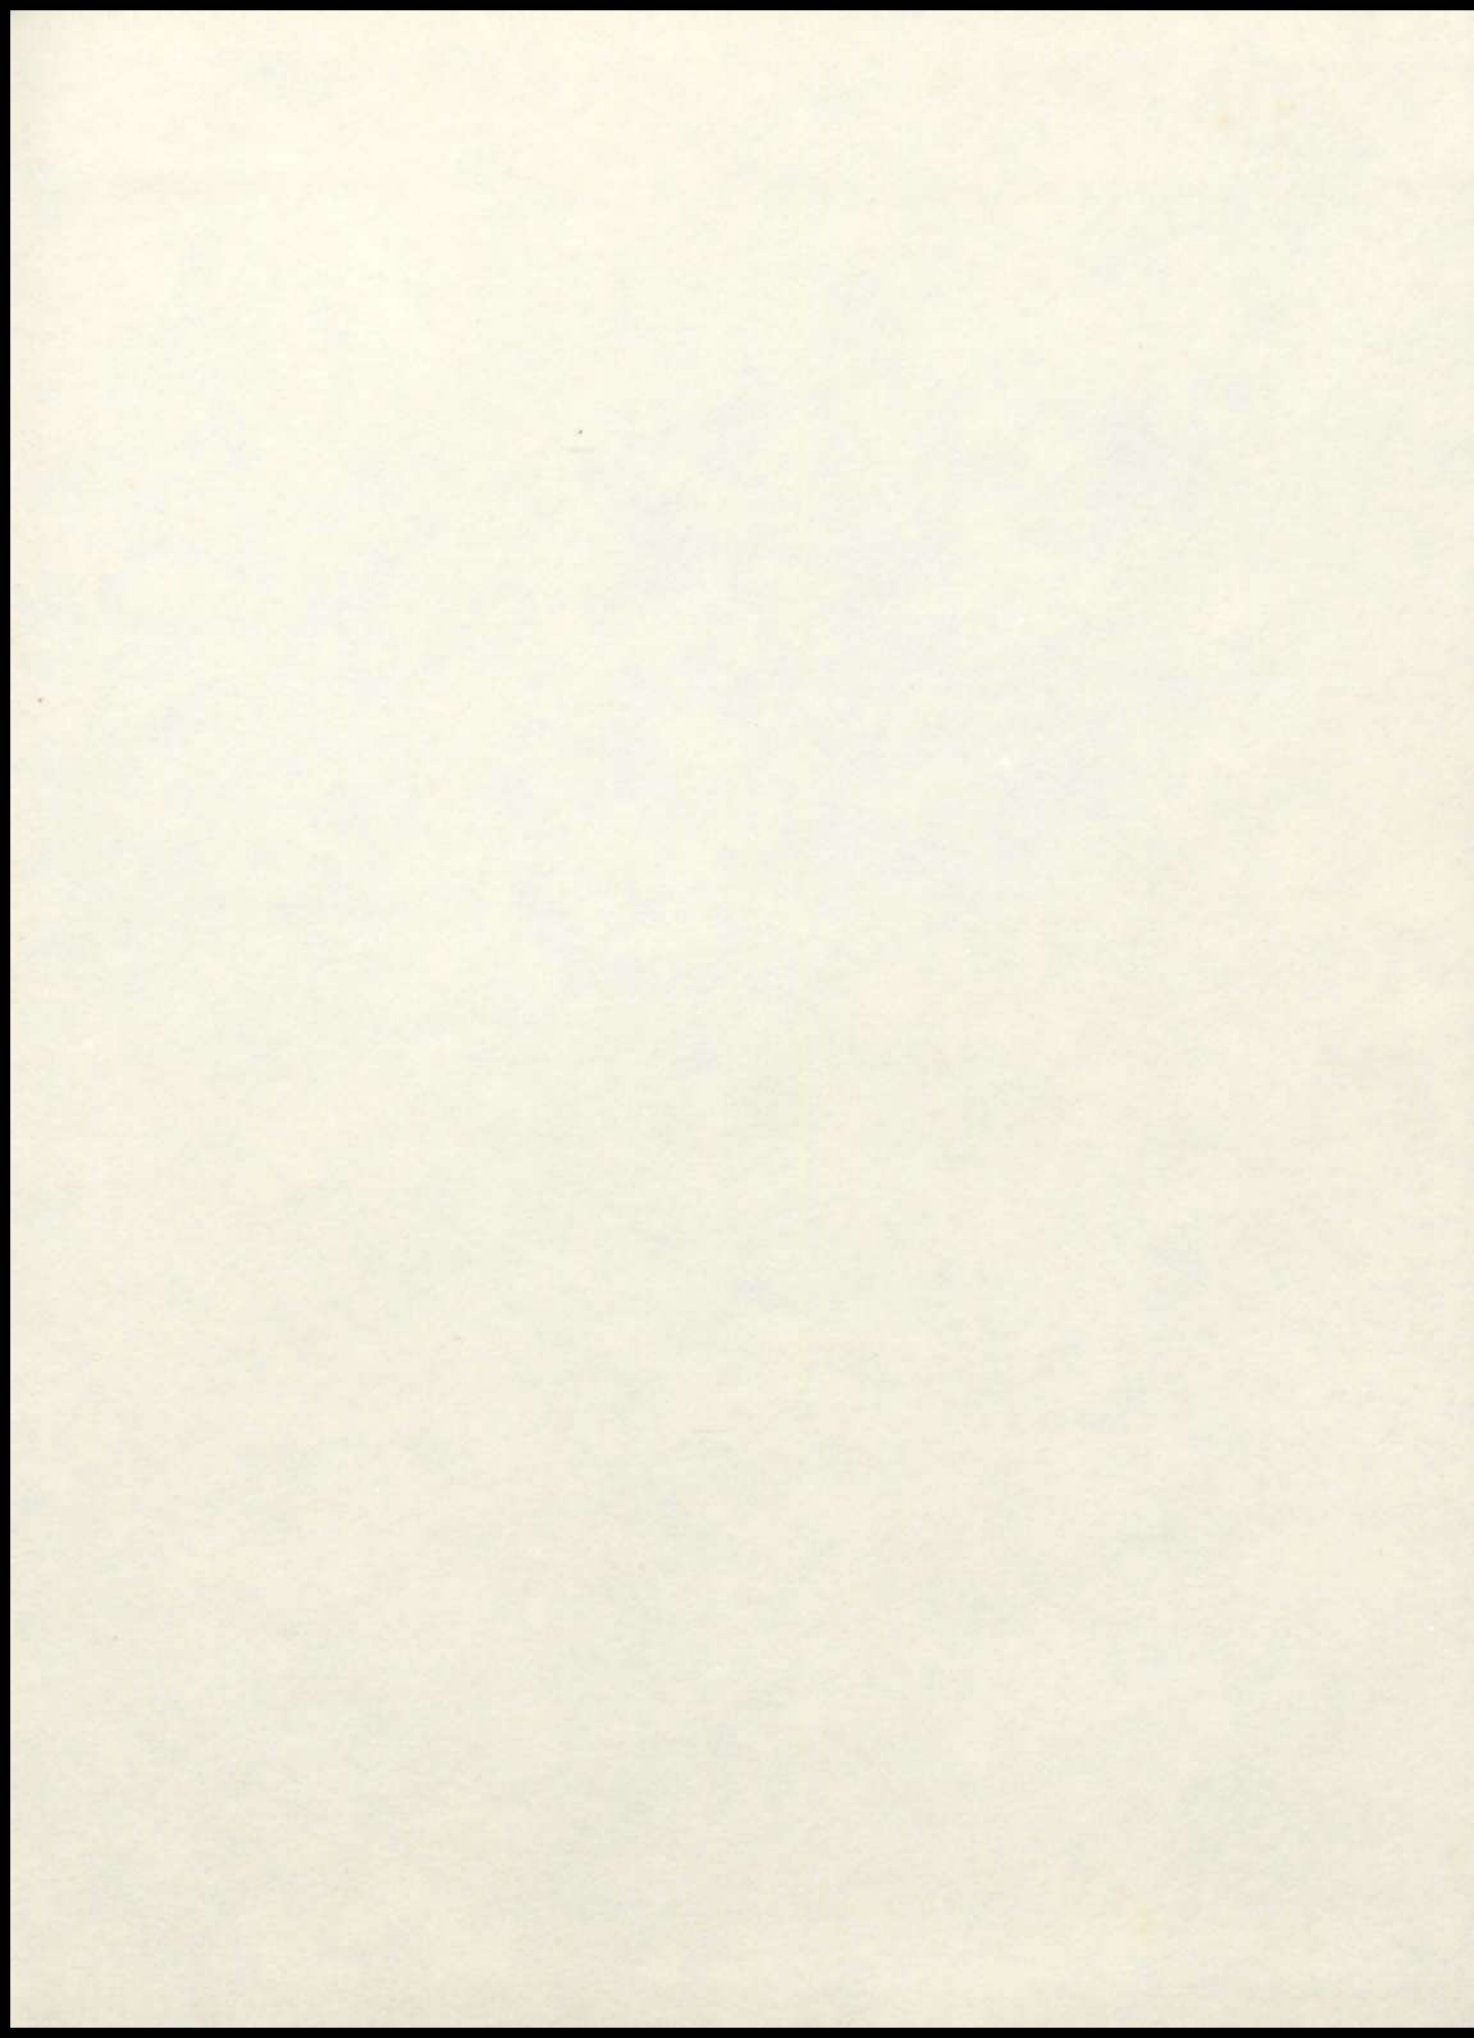

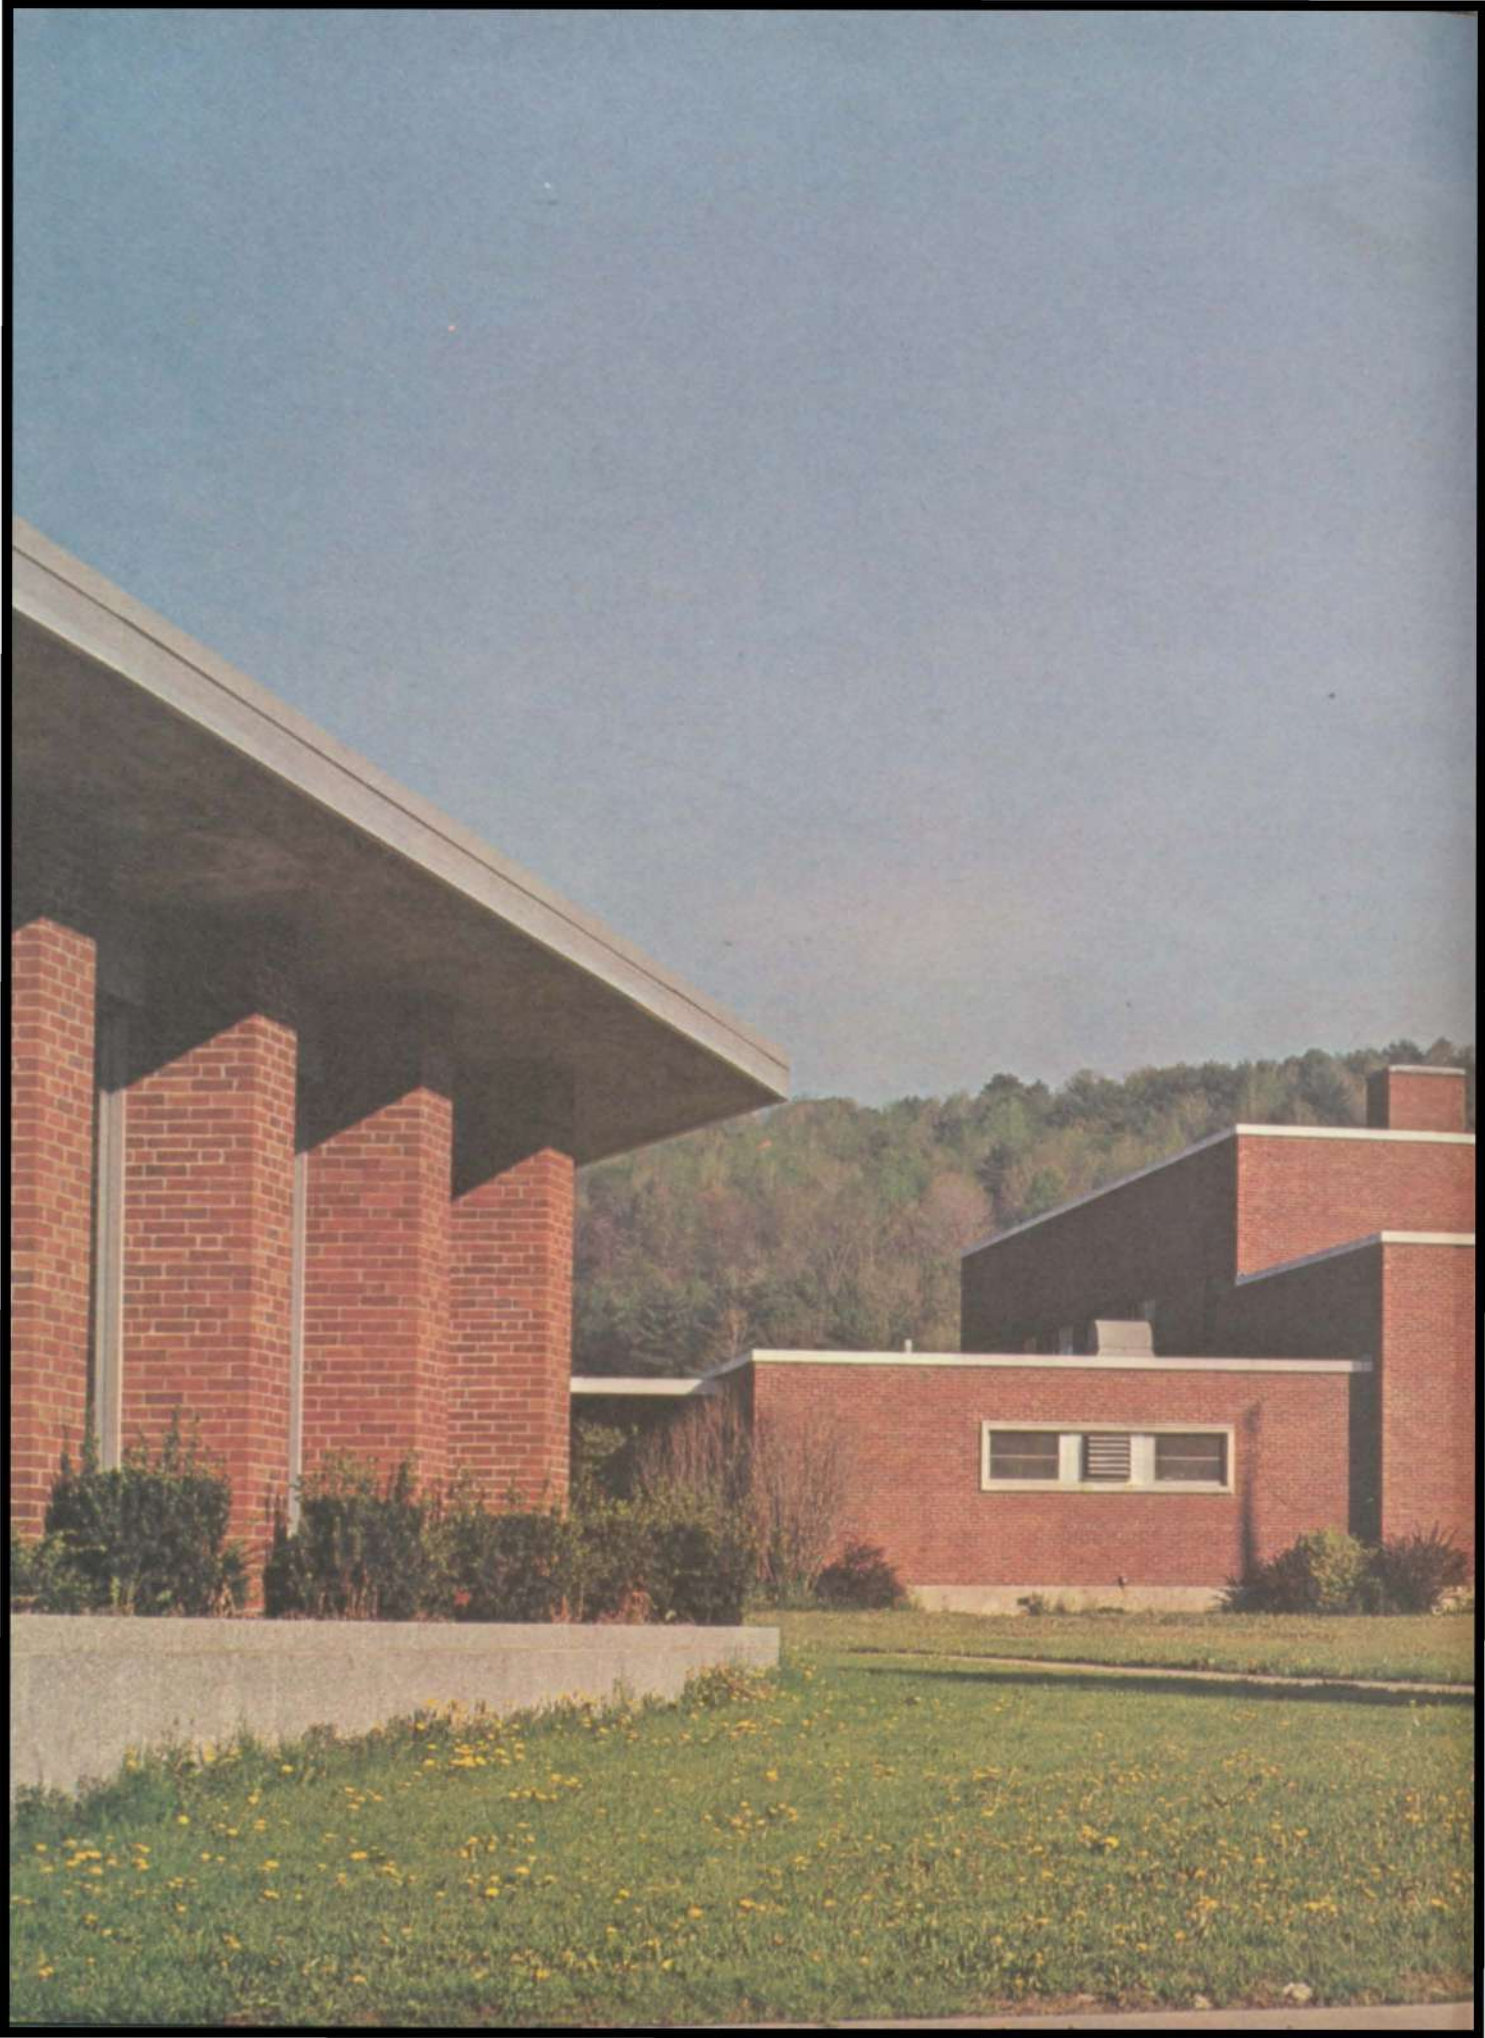

Not with an ache
or longing
for what can never be
But in quiet
loving recognition of what was.
