MORE THAN

Words

*In Loving Memory
of
Jackie Raye Gillespie
4/17/84 ~ 8/5/99*

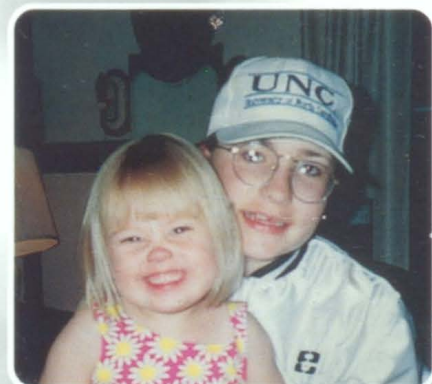

*Somewhere, over the rainbow, way up high.
There's a land that I heard of
Once in a lullabye.
Somewhere, over the rainbow, skies are blue.
And the dreams that you dare to dream
Really do come true.*

*Someday I'll wish upon a star and
Wake up where the clouds are far behind me.
Where troubles melt like lemon drops,
Away above the chimney tops,
That's where you'll find me.
Somewhere, over the rainbow, bluebirds fly.
Birds fly over the rainbow,
Why then-oh why can't I?
Happy little blue birds fly over the rainbow,
now so do I.*

*Lyrics by E.H. Harburg
Music by Harold Arlen*

Jackie had a special love of rainbows, they seemed to follow her wherever she went. After her funeral, a rainbow appeared over her house and greatly comforted her family and friends. Jackie will be greatly loved and missed by all.

Dedication

The Class of 2002 wishes to honor

Sue Gillespie

with the dedication of the 2002 Greenelite.

Lessons

The students of GCS are used to lessons. Some come in the form of tests or essays. Other lessons are more difficult to define. The first contact that some students have with school every day comes when the door of the school bus opens. The student is treated to a smile and a friendly "Hello." There is a particular bus driver in Greene who does more than just 'drive the bus.' She has taken on the role of a teacher, a mentor, a friend, and a mother. I'm speaking of Sue Gillespie, for whom the Class of 2002 has the utmost affection and respect. Sue has been a part of the class from that traumatic first day of school. Through the tragedies and triumphs of the past thirteen years, Sue has been there for us. Sue has offered us her advice and kind words, and comfort when we have needed them, and we have and will always give them to her when she needs them. Although we are leaving GCS this year, we will never forget Sue, and I know she will never forget any of us. She'll cry with us at graduation and dance at our weddings.

Thanks, Sue, you're the best.

Television Challenges

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? -- Regis Philbin hosts this game show with increasingly difficult questions. Would you like to phone a friend?

The Weakest Link -- combines a question and answer format with utter humiliation. Host Anne Robinson becomes noteworthy for scathing remarks such as "Who's in need of some mental floss?"

Survivor -- Contestants try not only to survive, but also to avoid being "voted off the island." Winners receive a million dollars.

Fear Factor -- Would you like to bob for apples in a tank full of snakes? How about slugging down a worm martini? Successfully completing these stunts earns the winner a cool $50,000.

The Chair -- Contestants try to control their heart rates while noted hot head John McEnroe pounds them with questions. Losing your cool can cost you.

Senior Chris Brunelle is ready for the challenge.

Chris Brunelle sports the classic look of jeans and white t-shirt while Tessa shows her swirly poodle skirt.

What's Up?

BULLETIN BOARD

Who Could Resist...
Advertising like this? Kind of makes you want to twist the night away, like we did last summer.

Elvis is in the building...
because what's a sock hop without the KING!

Classic Jeans... and white shirt works for the ladies too, with the addition of the ponytail hair scarf.

Sisters?
No, just fashion statements in pink and white.

Some friendships...
are timeless.

Halloween Dance

A truly terrifying experience

When the Easter Bunny...
Meets Dracula, almost anything can happen, and usually does.

A Little Bit of the Tropics...
On a chilly October night. Kindly provided by Mollie Gascon and Nicole Burrows.

Are you in costume?

Osama

Combines a costume and a political statement. Just stay out of the airport.

Tyler

Takes over as director of the dancing.

Matt

Matt Fiorelli joins a vegetable friend at the dance.

Laughter

Joe and Claire share a good time.

Everybody's got one...
Hero, that is.

An angel and her...
Louie, as Haley and with Haley.

The cowboy and the snowbunny
Ashley and Justin share a quiet moment at the dance.

Karlie and ?
Totally in disguise.

Personality shines through...
Annie Yager, who would have thought!

Brittany and the Fendryks...
Ready for the next dance.

Winter Ball

What better way to spend the Saturday Night after midterms?

All dressed up... prepared to dance away the winter blues.

Allison and Dwight under the symbolic silver balloon.

You make a great pair

Lavender

Looking lovely in lavender satin is Brittany Doolittle with her escort, Dave Purdy.

No Blues

Only in their attire does one see blue notes for Kelly Sanders and Jarrett Pilkington.

Sophomores

Class couple Eric Henry and McKay Turner enjoy the Snow Ball.

Waiting

For the ladies to arrive are Dusty Andrus and Justin Vandermark.

Winter Ball memorable moments
Remember when the music stopped because the breaker was overloaded? No dancing, but great conversation.

No snowflakes here...
Just a couple of beauties.

Behind...
The scenes as we decorated madly for two hours, transforming the gym into a winter wonderland.

Stephanie...
And the guys. Who dressed for this dance, anyhow?

Of course...
Yet another romantic moment at a Greene High School Dance.

Take off...
Your shoes and DANCE!

Coaches Karl and McMullen saw their teams through very enjoyable 2001 Tennis seasons.

What was your most memorable football moment?

Justin Vandermark

"I was in my sophomore year and it was the first game of the season. We were going against Oxford. I was on defense and when I came running across the line I got whacked. Snot flew out of my nose and my face mask was bent. That is my greatest memory."

Jason Grant

"My best moment in Varsity Football was this year when we played Sidney. It was the best moment because it seemed that was the game we actually came together not just as a team, but as a family. We all quit arguing and just played football."

Richard W. Brown IV

Our son. Words cannot express the love and joy you have brought into our lives.
Our wish for your future, above all else, is true happiness.

Advice:

Experience is a hard teacher; she gives the test first, and the lesson later.

Ill-gotten gains are not worthwhile.

The most wasted day is one in which you have not laughed.

HE died to take away your sins, not your mind.

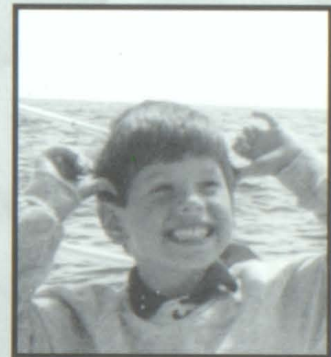

Live well. Love much. Laugh often.

Always remember: Life is like a roller coaster; just sit back, hold on tight, and enjoy the ride

We Love You.

Mom and Dad

In Memorial

On September 11, 2001, the lives of all Americans changed dramatically.

Acts of terrorism on American soil impacted everyone.

Thousands of innocent lives were lost.

We will never forget those who were killed.

In an act of unity with schools around the county, our students and faculty joined in the singing of "God Bless America."

An act that was meant to tear our country asunder has brought us all together.

Alone in your room

Surrounded by memories

Sends a message to my heart

I still hear your voice

Wishing I could bring you back to me.

I hold on to your loving memories

But the silence that you left

Is all I have.

There's only sorrow followed by pain

I think that I am dreaming

I wake up crying

It just never crossed my mind

That you would walk away from me,

Never looking back.

But, the silence you left

Is all I have.

Love, Mom

To the Class of 2002

Over the past ten months, the course of one single school year, we have seen a lot of changes. The Freshmen have gotten accustomed to high school, going from being strangers in a strange land to fitting right into the school scene. We look up to the Sophomores, as they make their way through the rigors of global studies and life sciences. The Junior class has all the pressure of the English regents, but the anticipation and excitement of the prom.

But it is the Senior class that we salute here on the final page of the 2002 GCS Greenelite. You've been a part of GCS for thirteen years, from those first tentative steps onto the school bus in kindergarten to the confident strides of the graduation procession. You've brought creativity, enthusiasm, and the unique blend of personalities that make up your class, the Class of 2002. Since school started in September, the world has seen a lot of changes. You are well equipped to face whatever the future holds. We have confidence in you all. The world is yours. You will make us proud.
