In Loving Memory Of

Kyle Thomas Petkash

~ January 20, 2008 ~

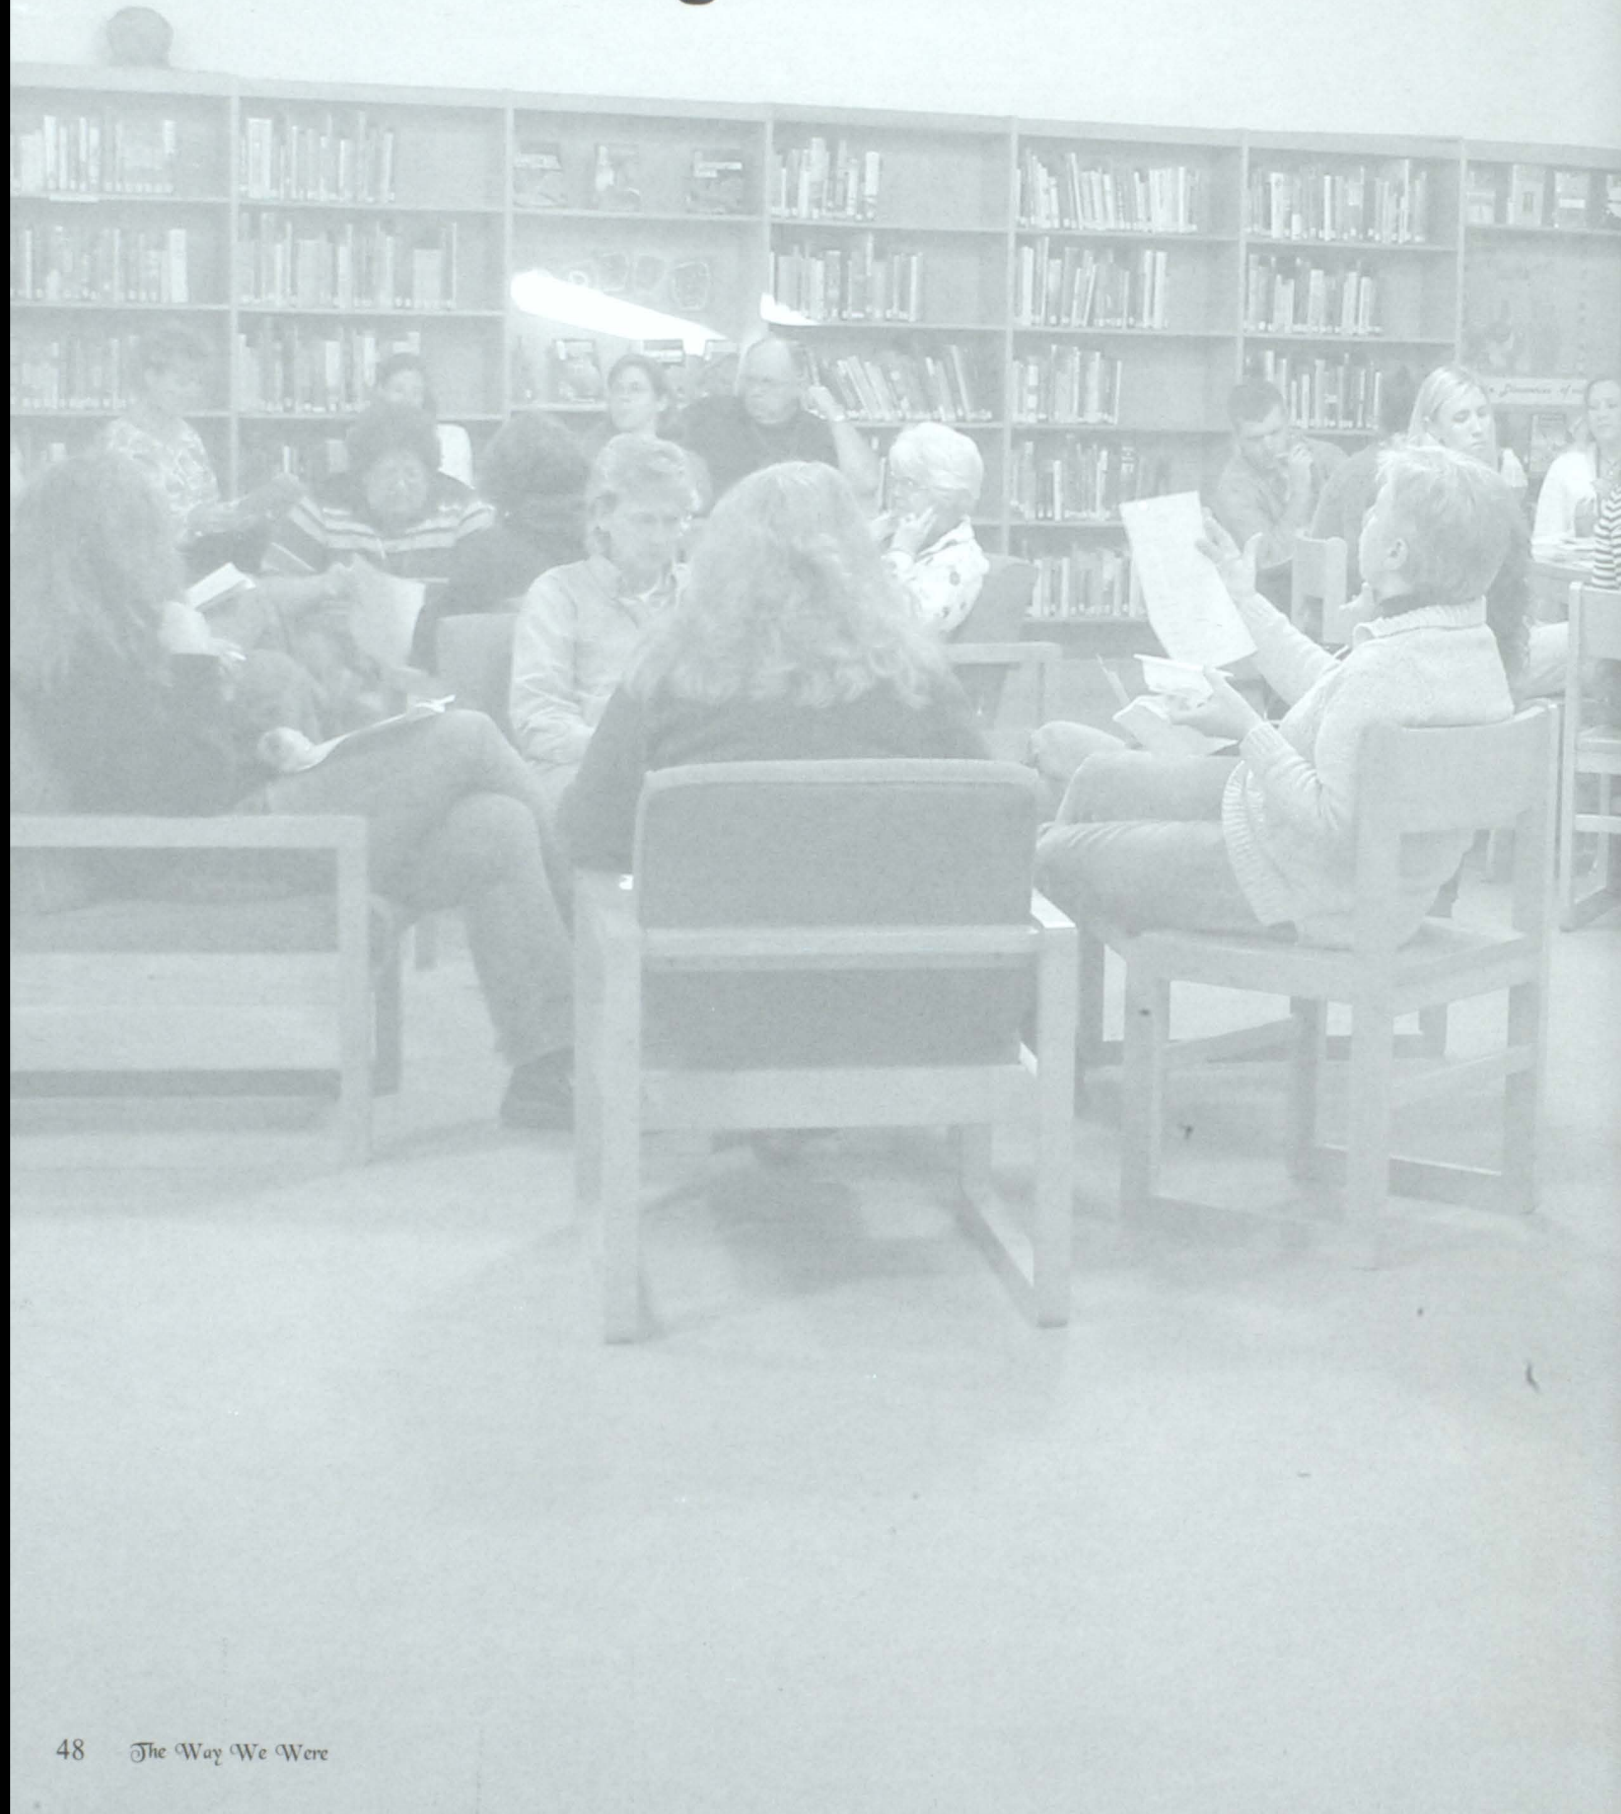

Whenever I needed someone to talk to
You were always there.
My eyes filled with tears, my heart filled with pain, and
You were always there.
There was no time when I had doubt to come to you because
You were always there.
I could see in your eyes you wanted to help, and that you really cared.

Whenever I was down and blue
You were always there.
No matter my problems, are what was wrong
You were always there.
Whenever I felt like nothing matters
You were always there.

Now your gone, and I don't know what to do I close my eyes and think of you, and how
You were always there.
It's hard to look at the pictures, and get memories of you Can you hear my now
At night I pray, and I speak to you I guess you were right when you told me no matter how far you were
You would always be there.
I know one day I'll see you again, but till then I have to say goodbye
Even though it hurts to hear you name, and speak of you
One thing I will always say is You were always there.

DJ,

As we stop and take time to reflect on the last eighteen years, a picture of a caring and loyal young man who has matured into a determined, driven, and loving individual is what comes to mind. You are a kind young man who would help anybody in need. You are aware of other people's feelings and strive to bring happiness and laughter to others. You have always been the first to high five your classmate after that basket or that touchdown you were there to cheer on. Your loyalty and integrity with classmates in sports and everything you do makes us proud of the man you have become.

We are confident that with your determination and fine work ethic you will become the best in whatever endeavor you choose to pursue. Know that we will be here for you and look forward to watching you achieve all that you set your mind to do. Your loving family.

When we first brought you home,
You looked so fragile and small.
"Eight pounds, seven ounces", said the doctor, He's going to be tall!
With a mischievous grin and a laugh straight from your toes,
Your childhood flew by - where time went heaven knows!

Questions you had,
Your favorite word seemed to be "Why?"
Where does the bunny get the eggs,
And how do reindeer fly?
Answer them we tried, sometimes with success,
We hope you know, we always tried our best.

A child of the Velcro generation, Tying shoes was the first challenge.
You were left handed, we discovered,
But somehow we managed.
New friends everywhere for trouble and fun, Frogs, turtles, snakes, mom drew a line at the BB-gun!

Wonderful teachers you had,
Each with patience to spare.
Every year that passed by,
You had someone to care.
Potential, they said, the boy can do it all,
Though at times it would seem, we would hit a wall!

In sports you excelled, Soccer and swimming, your dream.
"Boy can that kid kick!" say the parents,
As we watch and proudly beam.
Lots of hard work and determination as you grow, Team and individual success you can now show.

As your high school years come to a close,
With attempts at rhyming,
Our thoughts we try to compose.
We have no doubt you are going to go far,
And, yes, Pickle-man,
You can keep the car.

Your future awaits,
With opportunities, good and bad.
We want you to know how proud we are, our special, precious son,
With all our love, Mom and Dad

Well, you've certainly come a long way from getting on the bus that first day of sixth grade in Greene! We always knew that you would be right back on top of your game -- academically, socially and athletically. Holly Elizabeth Davis (Ollie-Boo!!)

It seems like only yesterday you were nearly a 60th birthday present for your Poppa!!

Third jewel of the Triple Crown - my, how you sparkle!!!! Always striving to do what is right. Natural comedienne, energetic athlete, driven to succeed - your fulfilled dreams await you!!!! Always remember blankie/thumb, shark bite, Holz, track records, Steeple Chase, medals in indoor & outdoor field hockey and our many travels together. Also great memories are your voice-impressions and your own language with words like friendals & findals!! LOL!!

Hang on to our great memories such as our time at Lake Shalmar, our many camping trips to Fish Creek Pond, and all the times we've spent together as a family (your sisters & us)!!!! Quick to laugh & quick to make others laugh are fine qualities to hang on to forever.

Center stage is now calling your name. Trail blazers are brave, but your courage in making your own way -- says it all. You will succeed...and by your endurance you will conquer!!

You have had your share of challenges, disappointments, and successes. Through them all - your perseverance has fueled you and will continue to do so!! We are witnesses to your never giving up.

Always remember your loving family. There is no mountain high enough...

Holl,

With much love and respect,

Bud,

I can remember your first motorcycle, first day of kindergarten and then your first day of high school. You were so happy about it (NOT). But you kept going and now it's at an end. You're getting ready for the next phase of your life. We are so proud of you. It's hard to believe that you're graduating already and going off to motorcycle school. Keep up the good work Bud!

To My Son, with Love

A mother tries to provide her son with insight into the important things in life in order to make his life as happy and fulfilling as possible

A mother tries to teach her son to be kind and generous towards other people to be honest and forthright at all times to be fair, treating men and women equally to respect and learn from older people to know himself very well to understand his strong and weak points to accept criticism and learn from his mistakes to have many interests to pursue to have many goals to follow to work hard to reach these goals

A mother tries to teach her son to have a strong set of beliefs to listen to his intelligence to laugh and enjoy life to appreciate the beauty of nature to express his feelings openly and honestly at all times to realize that love is the best emotion that anyone can have to value the family unit as the basis of all stability

If I have provided you with an insight into most of these things then I have succeeded as a mother in what I hoped to accomplish in raising you

If many of these things slipped by while we were all so busy

I have a feeling that you know them anyway

And as a proud mother and as a friend

I will always continue to love and support everything you are and everything you do

I am always here for you, Ryan

I love you

Son:

You represent real values. I'm real proud of
you. Good Luck Always

Love Ya,
Dad

My Daughter,

If I said raising you wasn't a challenge, I'd be wrong. Boy you really were a trying persistent bugger! There were many times during your teenage years I was so concerned on which roadway of life you were heading down. You always asked me to trust you and I did, as hard as that was. Now you are an incredible young woman. The support you have given me through the years will always be cherished. It is such an honor to say I'm "Ashley's mom", but it's so much more to say how lucky I am to be your friend. I know you will be successful in whatever you do in life. Ashley you have the determination and the personality it takes.

Just always remember in order to admire the rainbow first you most endure the rain.

I love you,
Mom

It wasn't always easy and it wasn't always fun but always with lots of Love.

Our little girl who always went 100MPH has become a beautiful young Lady going 100MPH.

Don't just reach for the Stars grab them. Congratulations and remember your way Home.

Good Luck and best wishes. "O Solo Mio"

"Ready, Set, Don't Go"

She's gotta do what she's gotta do And I've gotta like it or not She's got dreams too big for this town
And she needs to give 'em a shot Whatever they are

Looks like she's all ready to leave Nothing left to pack
There ain't no room for me in that car
Even if she asked me to tag along God I gotta be strong

She's at the startin' line of the rest of her life
As ready as she's ever been
Got the hunger and the stars in her eyes
The prize is hers to win
She's waitin' on my blessings before she hits that open road
Baby get ready; Get set; Don't go

She says things are fallen into place Feels like they're fallen apart
I painted this big ol' smile on my face
To hide my broken heart
If only she knew
This is where I don't say what I want so bad to say This is where I want to but I won't get in the way
Of her and her dreams
And spreadin' her wings

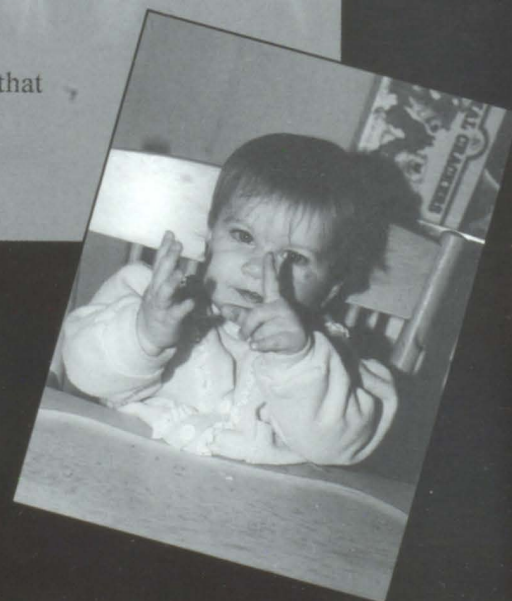

She's at the startin' line of the rest of her life
As ready as she's ever been
The prize is hers to win
She's waitin' on my blessings before she hits that
open road

Mrs. Donna Ingraham

A famous quote is that it takes a whole community to raise a child. Often when we honor someone who has made a difference, we tend to look at the front lines - the teachers and coaches in a school perhaps. But often we miss the biggest difference maker, the glue, the heart and soul of things! Today we are getting it right, For 25 years the one constant in our high school is the one we've chosen to honor. Students have known where to go for the answers. They have experienced her loving concern and compassion. They have benefited from her attention to detail - especially the seniors - who often get into college due to her persistence. Yet this is only a part of her impact. Teachers, administrators, even parents all benefited from her efforts. Without teaching a single class, no one has done more for us all than this kind, sweet, gentle servant whom we will find so painful to replace when she leaves. We thank you as the Class of 2008 dedicates its yearbook to the incomparable Mrs. Donna Ingraham.
