Maftuna Samandarova

I am an exchange student from Tajikistan. It is situated in Middle Asia, very far from oceans. 93 % of my home country consists of mountains. It is very cold in the winter and very hot in the summer. I am spending my senior year at GCS with wonderful students with whom I enjoy spending my time. I like Greene very much. I enjoyed my play practices where I had a lot of fun with students. Thank you Greene High School. It was very fun to attend public speaking class with Abby, Jenn, Moriah, Jenny, Caleb and the other students and of course with Mrs. Becker.

I would also like to say thank you to my host family, the Dunckle's for the great time and unforgettable memories they shared with me. Learning new things from my host sisters Emily and Allison was very fun! I appreciate everything Valerie and Jeff taught me. Knowledge, memories and love I learned from them is the most treasurable things in my life! The Christmas I spent with them was the most enjoyable Christmas ever!!! Thanks for everything!!! Love you!!!

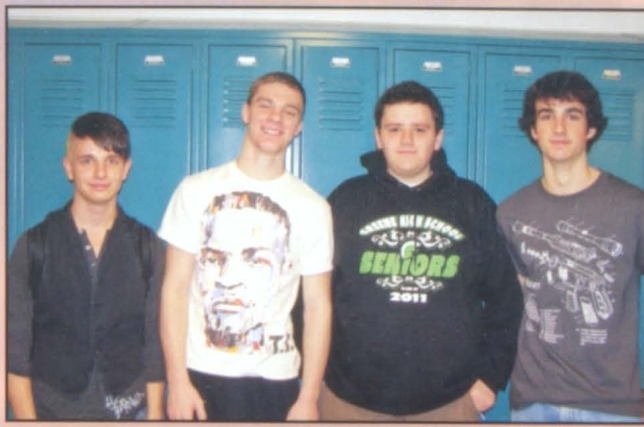

Maftuna =)

FROM TAJAKISTAN

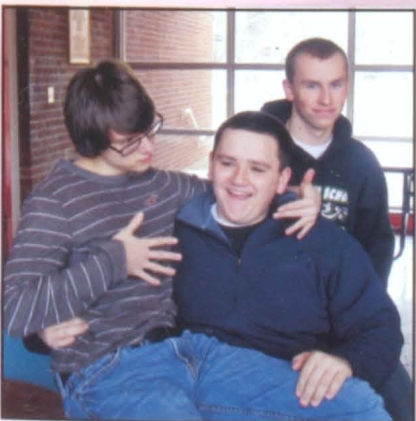

*You've got a friend in me
 You've got a friend in me
 When the road looks rough ahead
 And you're miles and miles
 From your nice warm bed
 You just remember what your old pal said
 Boy, you've got a friend in me
 Yeah, you've got a friend in me*

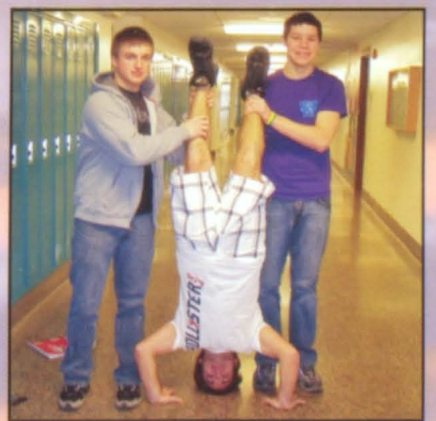

*You've got a friend in me
 You've got a friend in me
 If you've got troubles, I've got 'em too
 There isn't anything I wouldn't do for you
 We stick together and can see it through
 Cause you've got a friend in me
 You've got a friend in me*

*Some other folks might be
 A little bit smarter than I am
 Bigger and stronger too
 Maybe
 But none of them will ever love you
 The way I do, it's me and you
 Boy, and as the years go by
 Our friendship will never die
 You're gonna see it's our destiny*

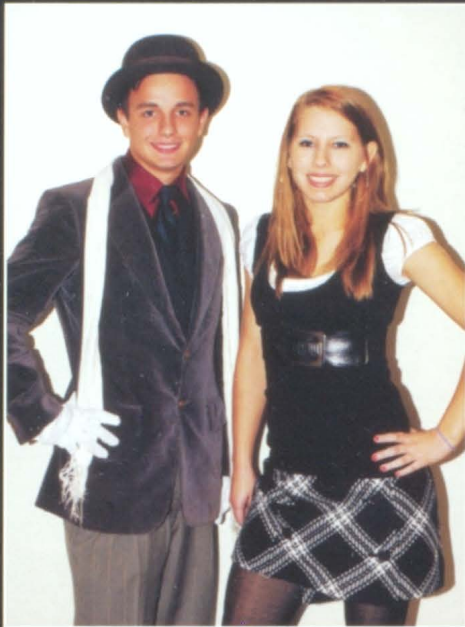

*You've got a friend in me
 You've got a friend in me
 You've got a friend in me

The 2011 Yearbook is dedicated to...

MR. KYLE RACE

This years dedicatee has been waiting years to win,
while walking through school with a constant grin.

He seldom matches,
his handwriting is awful and he has spelling mistakes that everyone catches.

But, he'll always manage to put a smile on your face, especially while sitting in lounge keeping up with gossip's pace.

He's always there to give you advice,
usually "Don't do drugs" or something else nice.

He's got his bulletin boards and quotes of the day,
and a love for Colbert that'll never go away.

But how do we know this guy's for real?
It doesn't matter, he's kind of a big deal.

- Abigail Conner

The Class of 2011 dedicates their yearbook to Mr. Kyle Race.

RACHEL'S CHALLENGE

On Wednesday, September 22, Dave Gamache came and spoke to the High School student body. The main idea behind "Rachel's Challenge" is, "We exist to inspire, equip and empower every person to create a permanent positive culture change in their school, business and community by starting a chain reaction of kindness and compassion." After the presentation a training session was held for student leaders to try and sustain the momentum created by the assembly. From this assembly a new high school club was formed called, Friends of Rachel.

Greene High School Welcomes...

PRINCIPAL, JAMES WALTERS

Mr. James Walters our new principal joined Greene School District in the fall of 2010. He resides in Bainbridge-Guilford with his wife Brenda. of thirty three years. They have three children; Daniel (28), Erin (24) and Emily (20). In his spare time he likes to exercise, hunt, and fish. His favorite food is chocolate, his favorite color is green and his favorite animal is a horse.

While in high school he played basketball and baseball. Mr. Walters attended West Genesee High School. He went on to attend Plattsburg for his undergraduate degree, SUNY Cortland for his Masters, and Syracuse for doctoral coursework. Prior to coming to Greene, Mr. Walters taught English at B-G for six years, went on to be the Dean of Students for four years and then the High School Principal for five years. He then became the Norwich Principal for thirteen year. Mr. Walters went to Sidney to teach for one year and then became the Middle School Principal for three years.

Mr. Walters was drawn to Greene because he was cut at Sidney due to Budget issues. He saw Greene's test scores and athletic achievements and saw good things happening that he wanted to be a part of. He would like to accomplish getting to know the place and assess Greene's strengths and weaknesses. He would like to maintain high scores and push to the next level. He would like to increase the number of students that go on and attend college. When asked if he likes his job Mr. Walters explained, "Yes, experience has confirmed previous thoughts."

To the graduating seniors Mr. Walters gave the following advice, "Keep your options open, as many doors open as possible."

Kebrina Fiester

Dearest Kebrina (AKA) Bini,

The years have flown by so quickly. The first time I held you, you were so small and precious. At age 3 we had doubts you would ever talk. So quiet, so polite, so shy... that sure has changed! You have blossomed into a beautiful young woman. You are living proof that big things come in small packages. Bini tells it like it is whether you want to hear it or not. Thanks to your drama there is no need for me to watch the soaps. My co-workers will miss you running thru the lobby after school yelling, "I gotta poop!" Thank you for your support and especially the memories and entertainment. We love you & best of luck in all you do.

Love,

Mom, Danny, Ashley & Halia

We can't choose how we die
But we can choose how we live

Bini,

As we grew up together I began to follow in some of your footsteps. Soon you will be going a direction I can't take, but when I do, I'll pack the knowledge you have given me.

Love, Brandi

Bini,

What happened to daddy's little girl who thought I had all the answers? There she is, the young lady thinking she has all the answers. Well honey; never settle for less than what you know you are worth!

You will always be "daddy's girl".

Love & good luck, Dad

And in it all you always look for the positive and continue to hold strong to the belief that we must live for today as one never knows what tomorrow brings. Continue inspiring others and reaching for the stars and always stay true to yourself and follow your heart!

Zachary Urda

Zach,

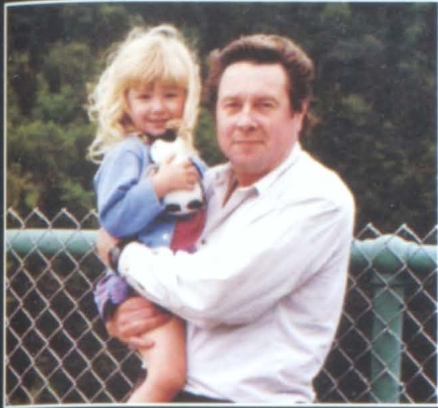

From a little red wagon to a red Ford Escort, what a ride it has been! From playing in the water to swimming with the team and lifeguarding, you sure have made a splash! From Halloween costumes of EMT firefighter to becoming the "real deal", your heart burns with a passion to serve others.

Always look for the positive side in every situation! May God bless you always!

We are so proud of you, and we love you!

Mom, Dad, and Jennifer

Sierra Marker

Our sweet, smart, beautiful first born. You will always be our pride and joy. Our journey with you has been amazing. It went too fast for us. How did you fit in so many wonderful memories in a blink of an eye? May your journey ahead be as bright as your smile. Congrats! We love you! Mom and Dad

Sierra, I had a wonderful life growing up with you. You are the best sister anyone can ask for. Even though I will miss you, your life will be great. You will achieve at everything. Love, your sister Brynn.

Sierra, You were not only our first grandchild (who was a beautiful and cuddly baby that filled us with joy), but you have grown into a very talented and beautiful young lady (that still warms our hearts and fills us with joy). However, it is not your outer beauty, your outstanding academic achievements, nor your exceptional athletic ability, but rather your caring and giving personality that makes us cherish you. May your life be full of rewarding experiences and other caring and giving individuals. You will reside in our hearts always. Love, Grammi and Granddad

Sierra's first driving lesson, with Uncle Mark. This is not how you should drive! Pay no attention to my forcing the other drivers off the course as so we can beat them. Hey, we were the only ones in the big heavy two seat-er, what do you expect? Love you!

Sisi we love you! Good luck!
Love, Andrew & Kevin
