I could go on about all the memories Ive made with everyone at gcs. but instead I decided to talk about what Ive learned from all of that. high school, & everything that comes along with being a teenager, has taught me many things that have changed me. one of those things is that life makes little sense, & the more we grow the less sense it will make. so through that I've learned to make the most of now, before it all changes once again, because in the future, all of this will only be memories.

"Life is what happens while you are busy making other plans." - John Lennon

Stay true to the person we know! Follow the good that's inside you!

Love: Dad, Mom & Jess!

Nicholas Viglucci

We can still plainly remember the little baby born with the dark skin and full head of hair, parted on one side and everything. The little boy in the suit standing next to his sisters in the hallway outside the cruise door cabin. The primary school kid with the blue ski helmet who tucked the poles under his shoulders and leaned forward to generate extra speed.

The B leaguer with his cousin's dark brown mitt and the giant barrel bat we spray painted gold to cover up the -15 size. One day the coach came to us and wanted you to try pitching because he said you were "accurate."

So many good baseball memories, the best involving games against Sherburne, Norwich, and Walton. One time we practiced with Steve E. and he hit a bullet 275 feet. You caught it backhanded, on the dead run, and he hit it so hard it knocked you over. Tremendous catch.

Then one day you came home with a red guitar, your mother's idea. Not sure how many years you played before it sounded like anything. The SG came from a wall hanger so far up they needed a ladder to bring it down. It was worth the effort. We can't wait to see where the next one comes from, it will be a special place.

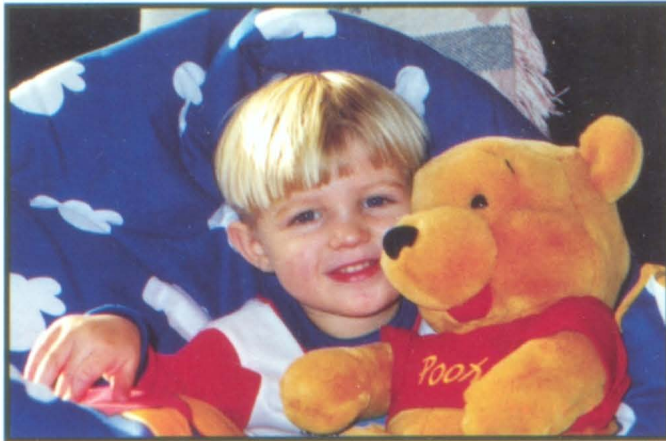

One day we went to a lesson and I fell asleep waiting for you. In my dreams I could hear Clapton and Hendrix, and when I woke up, it wasn't a dream or your teacher playing, it was you. We can't wait to see what the future brings.

Most of all, thanks for your great wisdom and maturity. You have seen firsthand so much of life good and bad, and absorbed it all like a man. Thanks for all the good decisions. Thanks for the patience.

Congratulations on what you've done, in and out of school. You are the best.

Love, Mom and Dad

Garrett Hebbard

What a journey! From being your cousins' dress up doll, to watching you dance on the stage yourself. From putting on "shows" at home, to watching you sing, act, and dance in all of the Footlights shows. From being a strong-willed toddler to becoming a confident leader of many activities. Mary Messina

Mary -

You have come so far Babygirl... from our cute little "Mary Monster", to a football player who couldn't be stopped, to a beautiful, caring young lady! You have shown us you can do anything you set out to do, and we know you will continue to do so in true "Mary fashion". Your strength, compassion and confidence has shown in all that you do: whether it is your political debates with Mom and Dad, getting your older sisters to do whatever you wanted, or winning the hearts of everybody you come in contact with. Another milestone has passed, and many more to go... Just know that wherever life may take you, we will always love you and be there for you!

We love you so much,
Mom, Dad, Samantha, and Danielle

Chelsea Wells

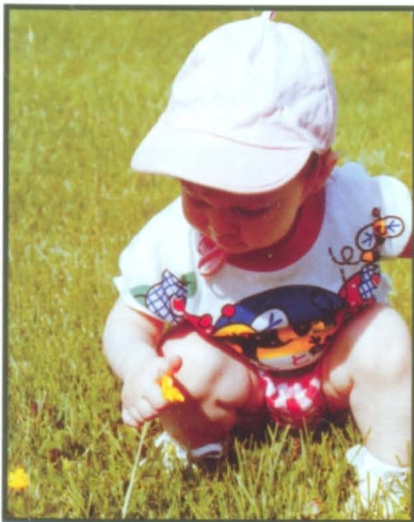

My Dearest Chelsea,

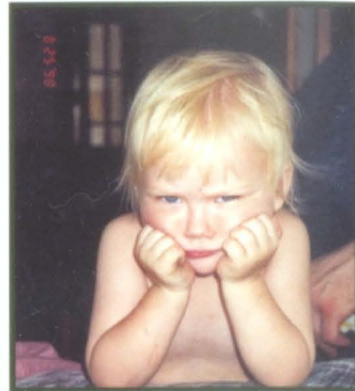

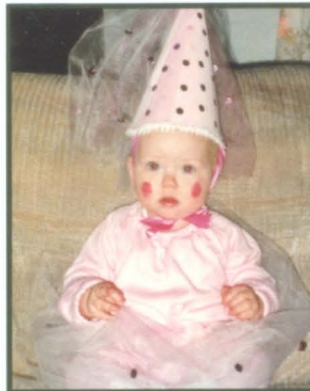

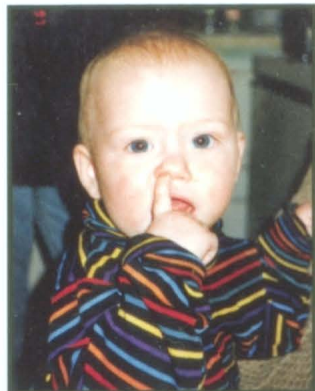

I cannot believe your senior year has come and gone. I am so very proud of the young lady that you have become. You are a determined, strong, driven, dedicated, hard working, caring, kind and compassionate person. I have been honored to be your mother. You have been a source of joy to me since the moment I knew I was going to have you. I will cherish each and every memory from along the way; from feeding the chickens and monkeys at grandma's, watering the chimpanzees and gathering food for the greedy people to the endless silly faces, selfies and beautiful smiles. My wish for you is that you live each day to the fullest, always try your best, do what makes you happy, and never forget that you are remarkable!

All my love, Mom

You have grown to become a beautiful young woman. We wish you much happiness in your future.

Love, Grandma & Grandpa

Only as high as I reach
Can I grow.
Only as far as I seek
Can I go.
Only as deep as I look
Can I see.
Only as much as I Dream
Can I be...

THE CLASS OF 2014 DEDICATES THE YEARBOOK TO...

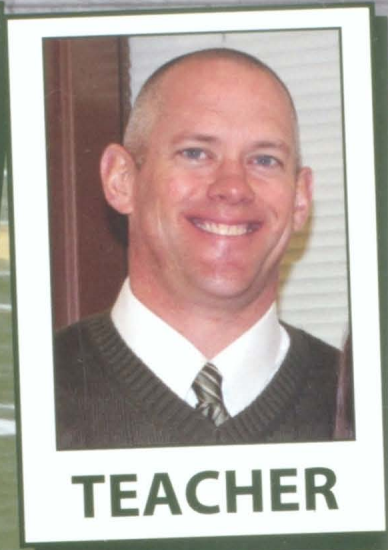

Mr. Tim Paske

COACH

HUSBAND & FATHER

TEACHER

A picture may be worth 2014 words, but this year's dedicatee is worth far more than words to the Class of 2014. For this reason we have chosen to dedicate our yearbook to a Teacher, Coach, and Family Man that we admire: Mr. Tim Paske. Mr. Paske always has a smile on his face when we see him in the hallway. He is the kind of coach who is willing to spend extra time out of season to help an athlete improve. He is a father and husband who puts his family first.

Mr. Paske's positive energy and hardworking mindset have been a huge reason why students have loved him since his first day at Greene Central School in 1999. As a physical education teacher and health teacher he gets students actively involved in what they are learning. Outside of the classroom, Mr. Paske inspires his student-athletes on the basketball court, football field, and track. During his tenure at Greene Central, Mr. Paske has coached many successful teams across all seasons. He has invested many years with Greene's Varsity Football, JV Boys Basketball, and Track teams. His athletes say that he coaches them to get more than wins, he helps them become better individuals. The Senior Class of 2014 will always remember Mr. Paske's daily inspirational quotes, the motivational "I Believe That We Will Win" chant he taught the student body, and his legendary invention of the "Paske Two-Clap."

For the Class of 2014, Mr. Paske embodies the Trojan spirit of GCS.
